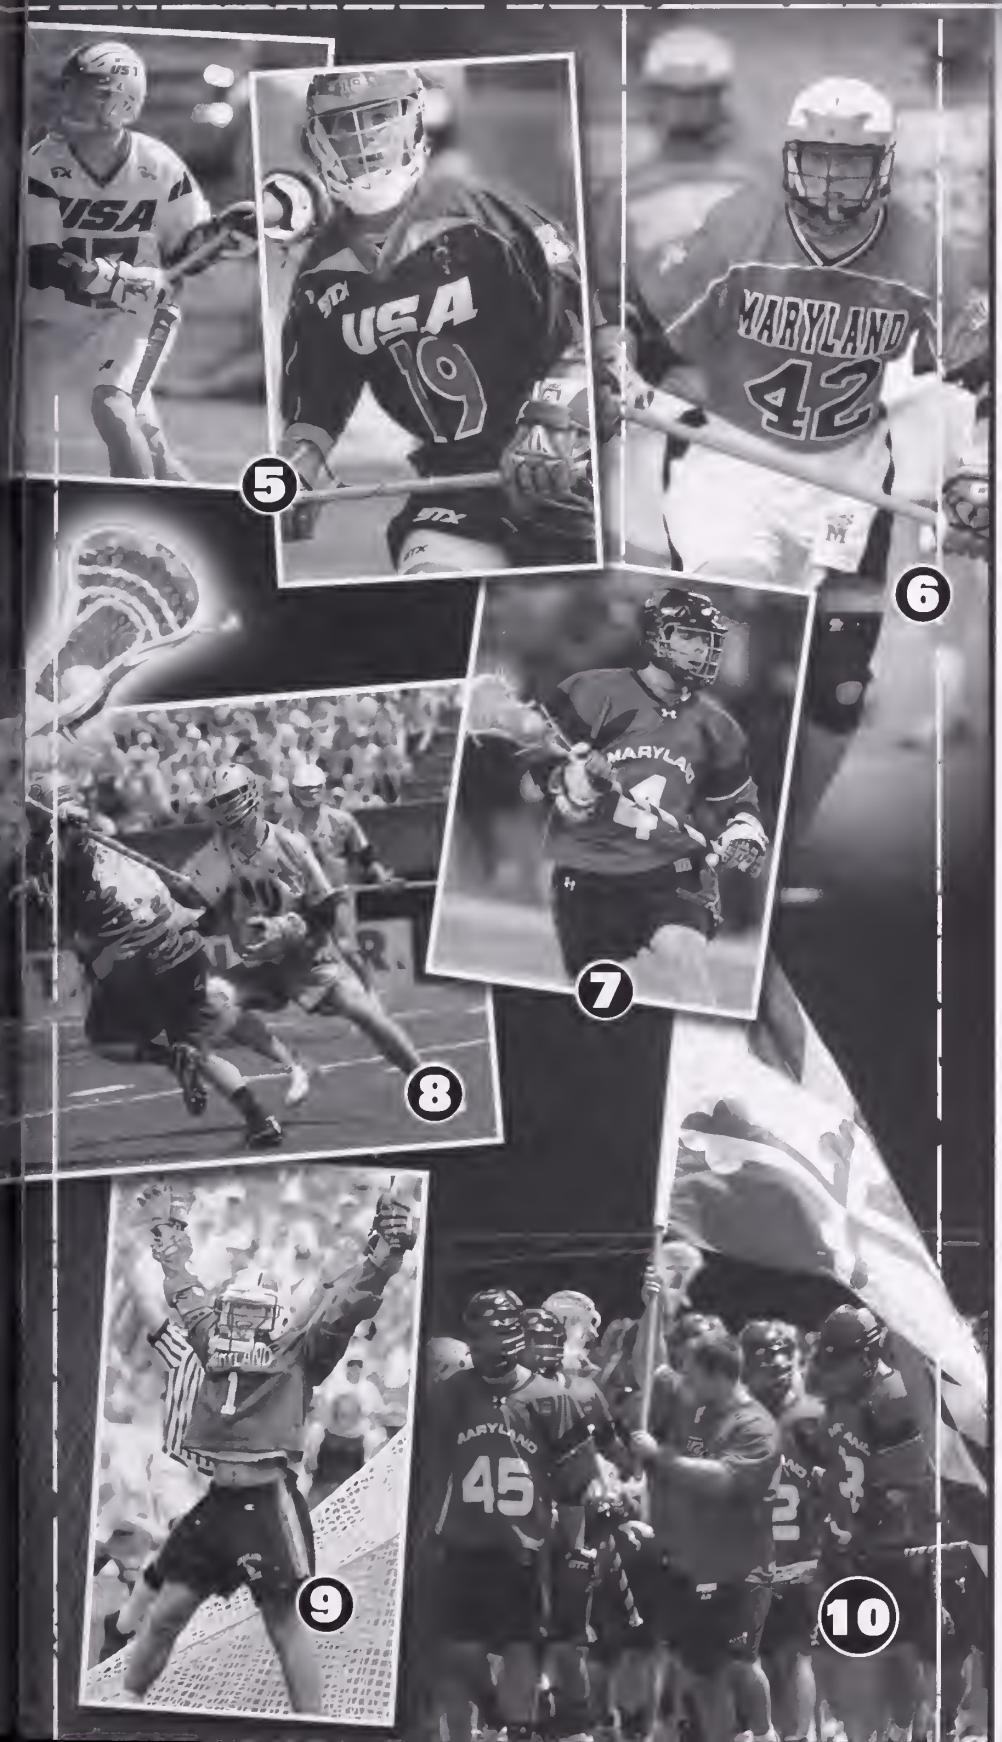
TRADITION



PLAYING FOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

1 :: The Terps have won two NCAA titles (1973 and 1975. see pages 6-7) and have played in seven more title games, most recently in 1998. Maryland has appeared in 17 of the last 19 NCAA tournaments and has reached at least the quarterfinals in 11 of its last 12 appearances. The Terrapins have also won 25 ACC titles, including the 2004 and 2005 championships.

THE HALL OF FAME

2 :: Thirty former Maryland players and coaches have been elected to the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame with former coach Dick Edell being the latest in 2004. In addition, 48 former Terp lacrosse players are currently in the Maryland Athletics Hall of Fame. Brian Dougherty is the latest inductee, being enshrined in 2008.

MEDIA SPOTLIGHT

3 :: Playing for the Terps means competing in the nation's fourth-largest media market. Maryland is covered extensively by Inside Lacrosse, as well as some of the nation's top newspapers: the Baltimore Sun, Washington Times and Washington Post. Maryland's games can also be seen regularly across the nation on the ESPN family of networks.

THE RIVALRY

4 :: The most storied rivalry in all of college lacrosse is Maryland-Johns Hopkins. The 105th meeting between the two schools will take place on April 11, 2009 at Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium as a part of the inaugural "Day of Rivals." and will be televised nationally on ESPNU. In 2006, Joe Walters score five goals, the most ever by a Terp vs. the Blue Jays, in an 11-5 Maryland win.

TEAM USA

5 :: Since its inception in 1967, the U.S. Men's National Team has featured 18 former Terrapin players and two Maryland coaches. Joe Walters, who was named to the 2006 team while still in college at Maryland, is the latest to play for the national team. The Terps have also had 13 players on the U.S.'s U-19 teams, dating back to 1988. Last summer, current Terps Max Schmidt and Ryan Young helped the U.S. win the gold medal at the ILF World Championships.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

6 :: Being a Terp means being in the spotlight of the lacrosse world. Since 1946, 22 Maryland men's lacrosse players have won national awards, including 2003 Schmeisser Award winner Michael Howley.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

7 :: Maryland men's lacrosse placed 27 student-athletes on the 2007-08 Maryland honor roll (3.0 or better GPA). In 2005 Terp lacrosse player Ian Healy was a Phi Beta Kappa honoree, just the third Terrapin student-athlete in any sport to be inducted into the nation's oldest and largest academic society.

IN THE PROS

8 :: A total of 46 former Terps have played lacrosse professionally in either the MLL, the NLL or both leagues. Lee Zink was named a 2008 MLL All-Star and helped the Denver Outlaws reach the MLL Championship game.

TRADITIONS

9 :: Wearing the No. 1 jersey has become an honor at Maryland. Beginning with Andrew Whipple in 1995, No. 1 has been worn by a high-scoring New York native. That tradition continues today with Grant Catalino.

10 :: Prior to every game, Maryland is led onto the field by it's strength and conditioning coach, who wields a giant Maryland flag.

1973: TERPS FINISH DOMINATING SEASON WITH TITLE

After making the finals in the inaugural NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship in 1971 and a semifinal defeat the following year in 1972, the Terrapins earned their first NCAA title in 1973 with a 10-9 victory over No. 2 Johns Hopkins on June 2 at Franklin Field in Philadelphia.

Maryland capped off an undefeated season thanks in large part to freshman midfielder Frank Urso. The Long Island, N.Y., native bounced a 15-yard shot off of Blue Jay defender Bob Barbera past Hopkins goalie Les Matthews, who was screened on the play, at 1:18 of overtime to gibe the Terps their first NCAA Championship.

Urso told Sports Illustrated at the time, "I figured if I couldn't see him, then he couldn't see me."

Urso wasn't the only hero for Maryland in overtime. Terp goalie Bill O'Donnell came out of the goal on a missed shot by Hopkins, but Blue Jay attackman Jack Thomas caught up with the ball and flipped it blindly over his shoulder to the crease. Dale Kohler caught the pass and fired a shot at what normally would have been an empty net. But Maryland defender Ed Glatzel stepped into the crease and knocked the potential game-ender away.

Earlier in the season, Maryland decimated Hopkins, handing the Blue Jays a 17-4 defeat, which was the worst of coach Bob Scott's 19-year career. With that loss fresh in their minds, the Blue Jays slowed the tempo down in the national title game. That strategy paid off in the first half as Hopkins took a 5-2 lead into the intermission.

But the Terps stormed out at the beginning of the third quarter, scoring four goals in a three-minute span to take a 6-5 lead, the sixth coming on the first of three goals by Urso. Hopkins rallied with three goals of its own to take an 8-6 lead. Attackman Pat O'Meally cut the lead back to one with an over-the-shoulder shot, but the Blue Jays responded with a goal of their own for a 9-7 advantage.

Goals by Urso and attackman Doug Schreiber, as time wound down, tied the match, sending it to overtime.

There is no question that the Terps dominated the 1973 season, thanks in large part to a balanced squad that featured 12 All-Americans, including four first team honorees, and five future Hall of Famers.

The offense featured four players with at least 48 points, led by O'Meally's 66. Fellow attackmen Ed Mullen and Doug Schreiber and Urso completed the quartet.

The defense was led by Mike Thearle, who was awarded the Schmeisser Memorial Cup as the nation's top defenseman, and crease man Rich Avena, who did not allow a crease goal by his mark until the national semifinals. O'Donnell was outstanding in goal and was considered to be one of the top two in the nation, along with Hopkins' Matthews.

Another important factor for the Terps in 1973 was the dominating duo of Doug Radebaugh and Gary Besosa on face-offs. Both earned All-America honors after helping spark Maryland's fast-break offense. Twenty-one times in 1973 the Terps scored a goal, won the ensuing face-off and scored again within 15 seconds.

CHAMPIONS

1975

1975: TERPS OVERCOME OBSTACLES TO CLAIM CROWN

The 1975 Maryland men's lacrosse team nearly did not qualify for the NCAA Tournament, playing just seven NCAA games with a 5-2 record. But the Terps did earn a bid and made it count by winning three tournament games decisively to be crowned the national champions for the second time in three years.

But this was not the domination that the 1973 title team showed. Maryland opened the season with a win over North Carolina, but suffered a devastating loss in its first game when All-America attackman Ed Mullen was lost for the season with an early-season knee injury. The Terps responded with a pair of victories over Air Force and Brown, but dropped their next two at Virginia and at Navy by a combined two goals.

Maryland, which was inexperienced early in the season while dealing with numerous injuries to key players, returned to its run-and-gun style of play and ripped off wins over Army and archrival Johns Hopkins to qualify for the tournament.

Once in the field there was no denying the Terps, thanks in large part to midfielder Frank Urso, who was named the recipient of the Lt. Raymond Enners Memorial Award as the nation's outstanding player in 1975. He tied the then-NCAA championship game record with five goals to lead Maryland to a 20-13 romp over the Midshipmen, avenging the Terps' regular-season defeat.

The game was a back-and-forth struggle with the Terps and the Mids wrestling to gain control. Maryland finally caught a break in the fourth quarter. Hanging on to a 13-10 lead, the Terps built a four-goal lead on a fast-break goal by defensman Mike Farrell.

One of the unsung heroes of the 1975 team was senior goalie Gary Niels. A converted midfielder, Niels made a pair of one-on-one stops to preserve Maryland's lead in the fourth quarter and finished with 17 saves in the title game.

The Terps' 20 goals set the championship game goals record that stood for 15 years (Syracuse topped Loyola 21-9 in 1990). The 54 goals in a three-game series was also a tournament record for Maryland.

SEASON OUTLOOK

EXPECTATIONS HIGH AS TERPS ENTER 2009 SEASON

At the beginning of a season no one knows for sure how it is going to end. Before a season starts it is easy to look at the roster and see where the team's strengths are and where its potential weak spots may be. At a glance, the 2009 Maryland men's lacrosse team appears to have a lot more strengths than it does weaknesses and that could mean that the Terps could challenge for the NCAA Championship on Memorial Day.

Head coach Dave Cottle, who is entering his eighth season as the helm of the Terps' program, knows that his team has its fair share of talented student-athletes, but he also knows that talent alone is not enough to win a title.

"We have the potential to be a very good team," admits Cottle, "but we have some holes that we need to fill if we intend to compete for the championship."

Chief among those will be replacing all three starters that finished the season at close defense, including second team All-American Joe Cinosky.

"We were kind of in this position last year with our defense," says Cottle. "We have some talented players who will have to step-up and become full-time players. One thing that we have going for us defensively is two top-notch goalies."

The goalie tandem of senior Jason Carter and junior Brian Phipps shared duty in the cage last year and will compete for time again this season. Cottle did not rule out continuing the goalie rotation that he employed last year in some form this season.

One area that looked to be set was the attack, but even that unit was thrown for a bit of a loop just prior to the season with the addition of 2007 All-American Will Yeatman, who transferred to Maryland from Notre Dame. The 6-foot-6, 260-pounder will join with sophomore Grant Catalino, 6-foot-4, 230 pounds, to for the nation's biggest attack duo.

"The addition of Will is an exciting one," says Cottle, "but we still have a lot of work to do in order to get the most we can out of this offense, and offense is not just the attack. We have to get more production from our midfield if we're going to compete for a championship."

Maryland's midfield returns a lot of experience beginning with a pair of senior All-Americans in Dan Groot, a 2007 selection, and Jeff Reynolds, a 2008 honoree. Groot is expected to anchor the first line, along with fellow senior Jeremy Sieverts, while Reynolds will begin the season as the leader of the second unit.

"This is going to be a very interesting season," says Cottle. "We have a lot of talent and the potential to be a good team. But potential doesn't get you anywhere. We have to go out there and earn everything on the field. If we go out there and work hard and get some breaks, who knows where we'll end up at the end of the season."

TRAVIS REED

RYAN YOUNG

GRANT CATALINO

BRIAN FARRELL

ATTACK

The Terps' top three scorers from 2008 were freshman attackmen Catalino (29-13=42), Travis Reed (20-11-31) and Ryan Young (9-11=20). That trio played amazingly well last year, but they are no longer freshmen and will have to continue to improve in their second season.

Catalino enters the season in the best shape of his life and could have "sophomore surge" comparable to what Joe Walters experienced from 2003 to 2004.

Reed will continue to occupy the right side of the Maryland offensive set. His laser-like shooting accuracy will keep defenses honest and help free up space for his teammates.

Young's speed, stick skills and field vision served him well as the unit's "quarterback" at "X". He could also see some time at midfield to free up playing time for other attackmen.

The addition of Yeatman is big – really big. His size and athleticism make match-up problems for opposing defenses.

A pair of freshmen, Owen Blye and Jeremy Cummings, will also be competing for playing time. Blye has good size and skill, while Cummings is a great "catch-and-shoot" player that could play on the extra-man unit.

Seniors Danny Gallagher, Scott Tompkins and Nick Ward will provide leadership. Gallagher is a good finisher, while Tompkins is a solid all-around player that can play multiple spots. Ward is a crafty lefty that plays well on the crease. Freshman Madison Fiore will also compete for time at attack.

MIDFIELD

A good mix of veteran leadership and youthful athleticism will be the hallmark of Maryland's midfield units this season.

That mix starts with seniors Dan Groot, Jeff Reynolds and Jeremy Sieverts. Groot and Sieverts combined 21 goals and 20 assists last season, mostly as a part of the first line, and are both solid defenders that can push the ball in transition. Reynolds, who led all Terrapin midfielders with 19 goals last season, is a shutdown short-stick defender in addition to being an athletic dodger with a big shot.

Junior Adam Sear will compete for a spot on a unit. The Australia native has the fastest shot on the team, clocking in at 107 mph.

Two sophomores that could see their first significant playing time are Warren Hansen and Bob Kercher. Both are solid all-around players, but each needs to continue to improve.

Another pair that could compete for minutes is freshmen Jake Bernhardt and Michael Shakespeare. Bernhardt is an exceptional athlete that could develop into an exceptional two-way player. Shakespeare's game is more polished and could be an offensive threat.

Senior Rob Morrison is a veteran that know the ins-and-outs of the Maryland offense and will compete for a spot.

Others competing in the midfield will be sophomores Scott LaRue and Drew Snider, redshirt freshmen Justin Blye and Jared Gangler and freshmen Joey Fontanesi and David Miller.

SHORT STICKS

The emphasis on two-way midfielders doesn't stop with the offensive lines. Maryland expects it's defensive midfielders to be able to push the ball to the offensive end and be threats to score.

Junior Bryn Holmes returns as one of the nation's finest short sticks. As tough as they come, Holmes led the Terps in groundballs last year in addition to scoring three goals and adding four assists.

Along side Holmes will be junior Dean Hart and sophomore Dan Burns. Hart is a smart, tough player who is capable on the offensive end. Burns is among the team's top all-around athletes and has worked hard to improve his stick skills during the offseason.

Senior Spencer McAllister has continued to improve and will be counted on for significant minutes this season. Redshirt sophomore Chris Ready is another outstanding athlete that will provide depth.

LONG POLES

All-American Brian Farrell is arguably the nation's best long pole and easily the biggest offensive threat with a long pole, but he's expected to also see time at close defense this season.

Making that possible is the emergence of sophomore Brett Schmidt as a top-notch long pole. Schmidt entered last season fourth or fifth on the depth chart and worked his was to the No. 2 pole spot by the end of the season.

Senior Chris Rhine and junior Dan Halayko will compete for the second long pole spot. Rhine is a solid veteran who can also contribute as a short stick. Halayko has been hampered by injuries, but is fully recovered now and is looking to return to form.

Sophomore Shane Hall will benefit from having a year in the program, while freshman Craig Sullivan could also compete for playing time.

CLOSE DEFENSE

The Terps have to replace three starters, including second team All-American Joe Cinosky, but the pieces appear to be in place for Maryland to continue its tradition of defensive excellence.

Sophomore Max Schmidt started 10 games as a freshman in 2008 and will be expected to be the team's top defender this season. He gained a wealth of experience and confidence last summer as a part of the gold-medal wining U.S. team at the U-19 World Championships.

Farrell will make the transition to close defense, but the best offensive defender in the nation will still be free to break up the field and attack the goal. He can also be used up top as a long pole in certain situations as well.

The third starting spot is up for grabs entering the season. Among the contenders to fill the position are seniors Mike Griswold, sophomore Ryder Bohlander and freshman Grant Oliver. Griswold is a strong, physical defender who has proved to be a good leader. Bohlander has developed significantly over the past year and has good athleticism and toughness. Oliver comes from a solid prep background and could compete despite his lack of experience.

BRETT SCHMIDT

MAX SCHMIDT

BRIAN PHIPPS

BRYN HOLMES

Seniors Anthony Costanzo and Kevin Slafkosky have been solid contributors on the Terps' man-down unit and are expected to serve in that capacity again. The pair also has experience in the system and could see time at close defense as well.

Sophomore Michael White is also expected to provide depth.

GOALIE

The Terps' boast the best tandem of goalies in the nation in Jason Carter and Brian Phipps. The two split time in the cage last year, rotating starts and halves. Some form of goalie rotation is expected again this season, but the details are not yet set.

Carter is an athletic, shot-stopper who is capable of pressuring opposing offenses with double-teams.

Phipps is a true tactician and has worked hard to improve his athleticism. While known for his savvy goalkeeping, Phipps' precision passing on clearing attempts often helps trigger the Terps' transition offense.

Both goalies have the potential to shut down opposing offenses as they did last year when Carter made 15 saves in the Terps' 13-9 win over No. 1 Virginia and Phipps stopped 17 of 18 shots in a 9-4 victory over Penn.

Sophomore Mark White, who saw limited action last year, will serve as the team's third goalie.

FACE-OFFS

Maryland took advantage of the NCAA's new face-off rule as much as any squad last season and that should continue this year.

Bryn Holmes returns as the Terps' leading face-off man and is expected to take the majority of Maryland's draws this year. Last season he took nearly 45 percent of the team's face-offs and had a .561 winning percentage.

Other options at the "X" for the Terrapins include Dan Burns, Casey Creaney, Scott LaRue and Ryder Bohlander with a long pole.

The wild card will be Jeff Reynolds. Last season he won better than 61 percent of his face-offs, but only took 18 draws.

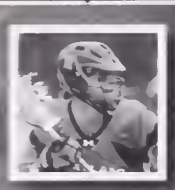
2009 EVENTS

While Maryland's schedule is always among the toughest in the nation, the 2009 season finds a trio of highly anticipated events on the Terps' slate.

First, the Terrapins will open the season in the Sunshine State as a part of the annual Wounded Warrior Project fundraiser. Maryland is set to face Presbyterian and Air Force in Jacksonville, Fla., on Valentine's Day weekend.

Maryland will then return to M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore on the last weekend in February to take on ACC rival Duke in the Konica Minolta Face-Off Classic. The doubleheader, now in its third year, will have Johns Hopkins and Princeton facing-off in the opener.

The Terps will return to M&T Bank Stadium for their 105th meeting with Johns Hopkins in the second game of the inaugural Day of Rivals. The annual Army-Navy game will be the opening contest.



HEAD COACH DAVE COTTLE

EIGHTH SEASON AT MARYLAND • SALISBURY '78

Since arriving to the College Park campus in the fall of 2001, Dave Cottle has continued the storied tradition of excellence of the Maryland men's lacrosse program and helped usher the Terps into a new era of national prominence.

Under Cottle's leadership the Terrapins have made six-straight trips to the NCAA tournament, earned a top-three seed four times and advanced to the Final Four in 2003, 2005 and 2006. Since 2003, Maryland is one of only four programs to make three final four appearances.

Cottle is also deeply involved in the national leadership for the sport of lacrosse. He is currently serving a term on the NCAA Division I men's lacrosse committee and is the vice-president of the Intercollegiate Men's Lacrosse Coaches Association.

Prior to arriving in College Park, Cottle spent 19 seasons as the head coach at Loyola College. There he led the Greyhounds to 14 straight NCAA tournament appearances, including a pair of berths in the national semifinals.

Cottle, now in his 27th season as a head coach, is tied for first all-time in NCAA history with 20 NCAA tournament bids. He is currently fifth among active coaches in wins with 258. His overall mark of 258-104 gives him a 71.3 winning percentage, which ranks sixth among active coaches with at least 100 wins.

During his tenure at Maryland, not only has the program continued to be among the sport's elite, but Terrapin players have also thrived and received national attention. In the past six seasons under Cottle a total of 23 Terps have earned 41 All-America honors. Two Terps, Michael Howley in 2003 and Lee Zink in 2004, won the Schmeisser Memorial Cup, which is given annually to the nation's outstanding defender. In 2006, Joe Walters became Maryland's all-time leader in goals and points and was named the winner of the Jack Turnbull Memorial Award as the nation's top attackman.

The backbone of Cottle's success has been a strong work ethic and an emphasis on "student-athletes." Six of Cottle's Terrapin players earned USILA Scholar All-America honors, including 2005 graduate Ian Healy, who became just the third Maryland student-athlete to be inducted into Phi Beta Kappa, the nations oldest and most prestigious academic society.

Cottle, 53, was named the eighth coach in the storied history of Maryland lacrosse on Sept. 26, 2001, taking the reins from the ACC's all-time winningest coach, Dick Edell, who retired on Sept. 3, 2001 after 18 years with the Terps.

Last season proved to be another masterful coaching job by Cottle. The 2008 Terps featured an all-freshman starting attack that saw the trio finish 1-2-3 in team scoring. Maryland finished the season with a 10-6 mark and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament before falling in overtime.

The 2007 season, which was viewed by many as a "rebuilding year" for the Terps proved to be one of Cottle's finest seasons as a head coach. With an inexperienced offense and an injury-riddled defense, Cottle managed to lead Maryland to a 10-6 record and a No. 7-seed in the NCAA Tournament.

The Terps returned to the NCAA Final Four for the second straight season in 2006. Cottle's squad finished the year with a 12-5 record and earned Maryland the No. 2 seed in the NCAA tournament for just the second time in school history. Seven Terrapin players earned All-America honors with Walters and midfielder Bill McGlone being first team selections. Walters was also named the ACC Player of the Year for the second time in his career.

In 2005 Cottle directed Maryland to its ninth trip to the NCAA Semifinals and its second straight ACC tournament championship. The Terps ended the season with an overall record of 11-6, but finished the season winning six of their last seven games. Six Maryland players were named postseason

All-Americans, including McGlone, who was a first team selection. Cottle's program also earned another honor in June of 2005 when Walters was named to the 2006 U.S. National Team, the only college player to be selected to the 23-man roster.

Cottle guided the 2004 Terps to a 13-3 record and their first ACC championship since 1998. Maryland finished the season ranked No. 3 in the USILA poll and made it to the quarterfinals of the NCAA tournament. Eight Terrapin players earned All-America honors, including three first team honorees.

In 2003 he led Maryland back to the NCAA Semifinals for the first since 1998. The Terps had a stellar season, including a No. 3 final ranking. Maryland piled numerous accolades as they had eight USILA All-Americans including Howley, who was a first-team honoree. The Terps posted a 12-4 record in 2003 and gave Cottle his third trip to the national semifinals.

He led his Loyola teams to top-10 finishes in each his 14 seasons. The Greyhounds finished with a winning record the final 18 years of his tenure, dating to 1984. Loyola also played in 14 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, entering the 1998 and 1999 tournaments as the No. 1 seed.

A Baltimore native, Cottle took over a struggling Greyhound program in 1983. Since posting a first-year record of 5-9, his only losing season in 25 years as a college head coach, Cottle's Loyola teams reeled off 18 consecutive winning seasons. The 1998 team's 13-2 campaign, which ended with a berth in the NCAA semifinals, saw Loyola reach a No. 1 national ranking, and earn the school's first No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

In 1988 the Greyhounds began a run of 14 consecutive NCAA tournament appearances. Loyola advanced to the national championship game in 1990, and made 10 NCAA quarterfinal appearances under Cottle.

The 1990 team, a potent mix of seasoned veterans and talented underclassmen, marched all the way to the NCAA championship game. In the semifinals the Greyhounds staged an incredible comeback to beat Yale, 14-13, in overtime. Syracuse, the two-time defending champs, ended Loyola's quest for the national title, but the Greyhounds' 1990 season always will be remembered.

In 1994 Cottle guided the Greyhounds to one of their best seasons ever. Loyola finished 11-2, recording wins against four NCAA tournament teams. The Greyhounds earned the nation's No. 1 ranking for only the second time in their history. Loyola concluded the regular season with a 17-15 victory over Johns Hopkins, the program's first victory ever against the Blue Jays.

Cottle's 1988 squad finished with a 12-2 record, earning Loyola's first NCAA Division I tournament berth. Loyola defeated Air Force for its first NCAA postseason victory before losing to Penn in the quarterfinals. The Greyhounds concluded the season ranked fifth in the nation, and Cottle earned USILA Coach-of-the-Year honors, becoming the first coach in Loyola athletic history to receive a national award. Cottle was also selected to coach the South team in the 1988 North-South All-Star Game.

The 1989 Greyhounds became the only Loyola lacrosse team to complete an undefeated regular season. The Greyhounds beat four nationally ranked teams en route to a perfect 10-0 mark. Loyola was ranked third in the final poll, behind eventual national champion Syracuse and Johns Hopkins.

Cottle came to Loyola in 1982 after leading Severn School to a 26-9 record and consecutive Maryland Scholastic Association championships. Prior to his success at Severn, Cottle served for two years as a graduate assistant coach, assistant varsity lacrosse coach and physical education instructor at his alma mater, Salisbury State University.

One of the finest players in Salisbury State history, Cottle was enshrined into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1989. During his career he re-wrote the NCAA record book, while earning All-America honors three times. He still ranks among the top three in goals (179), assists (123) and points (302) in Seagull history. In 1975 Cottle led the nation in scoring and was just the second player in collegiate lacrosse history to score more than 100 points in a single season. Following his senior season in 1977, he served as captain of the South team in the North-South All-Star Game.

Cottle received his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education in 1978 from Salisbury.

He was an assistant coach for Team USA 1994, which won the world championship in Manchester, England. Cottle has addressed many lacrosse gatherings across the country, including the USILA Coaches' Convention, and he serves as a member of the All-America Selection Committee. In February of 1998 he was inducted into the Baltimore Chapter of the Lacrosse Foundation's Hall of Fame.

A graduate of Baltimore's Northern High School, Cottle lives with his wife, Lynn, daughters, Taylor and Tory, and son, Sean, in Edgewater, Md.

DAVE SLAFKOSKY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR • 26TH SEASON AT MARYLAND
JOHNS HOPKINS '74

Defensive coordinator Dave Slafkosky continues his association with the Maryland lacrosse program as he enters his 26th season with the Terps this spring. This season will be the eighth straight Slafkosky has worked with Dave Cottle after the previous 18 with his best friend, coach Dick Edell, who retired in September 2001.

Slafkosky and Edell celebrated their 25th year together in 2001 in leading the Terps to a No. 1 ranking at midseason. The duo was also featured on the cover of Inside Lacrosse magazine. Edell and Slafkosky's relationship began when the two coached together at Army from 1977-1983. When Edell came to Maryland, his only request was that "Coach Slaf" join him. Granting Edell's only request was a critical decision that ensured unprecedented success for the program. Slafkosky has continued to serve admirably under Cottle.

When Cottle came aboard as head coach in 2002, Slafkosky returned to the defensive side of the game as defensive coordinator after serving as offensive coordinator in 2001.

Last season under the on-field leadership of second team All-American Joe Cinosky, the Terps played tremendous team defense and held opponents to less than eight goals per game. Long-pole Brian Farrell and midfielder Jeff Reynolds, who began his career as a defensive short-stick, were named honorable mention All-Americans.

In 2007, injuries forced Slafkosky to play a trio of freshmen in key roles, including Brian Phipps in goal. Phipps would go on to be named the ACC's Freshman of the Year after anchoring a defense that allowed just over eight goals per game. Senior defenders Ray Megill and Stever Whittenberg were named second team All-Americans.

The 2005 season saw Slafkosky mold an entirely new defensive unit into a group that helped lead Maryland to the 2005 NCAA Final Four. Whittenberg was named a third team All-American, while goalie Harry Alford and Megill were honorable mention selections.

The 2006 season saw that 2005 defense return nearly intact and the results showed, as the Terps finished with a 12-5 record, returned to the NCAA Final Four and finished third in the NCAA in scoring defense, allowing just 6.47 goals per game. Whittenberg earned second team All-America honors, while Megill was a third-team selection. Alford was a honorable mention honoree for the second straight season.

The 2004 season marked the second straight season that the Terp defense produced the National Defenseman of the Year in Lee Zink. Maryland's defense also produced first team All-Americans Chris Passavia and third team member Paul Gilllette. Goalie Tim McGinnis and defenseman Dave Wagner were honorable mention selections.

The 2003 season featured the Terps' All-American defense led by National Defenseman of the Year Michael Howley (first team) along with second teammer Passavia and third team members Zink and goalie Danny McCormick. The Terps were among the nation's leaders in defense all season, allowing just 7.25 goals per game.

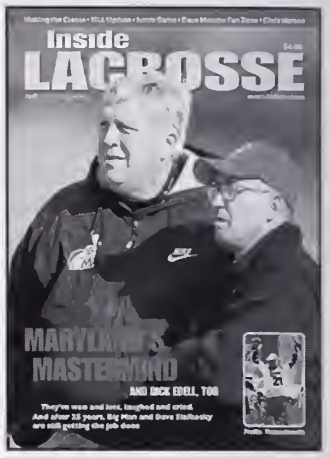
In 2003 the Terps returned to the NCAA Semifinals for the fourth time in nine years and seventh in Slafkosky's 20 years at Maryland.

In 2002, the Terps continued to have the nation's premier defense as they led the nation in allowing just 6.88 goals per game for the top defense in the rankings. Slafkosky coached a pair of All-Americans in close defenders Howley and Passavia.

As the offensive coordinator in 2001, All-American attacker Andrew "Buggs" Combs became the second player in Maryland history to score 50 goals in a season. This will be Slafkosky's third stint as defensive coordinator at Maryland. Prior to the 2001 season, he served as defensive coordinator for five seasons.

Originally, Slafkosky was named defensive coordinator when he joined the Terps in 1984. After leading Maryland to the NCAA semifinals in 1987 and 1989, Edell had his old friend take over the offensive reins in 1991.

Without missing a beat, the Terps would soon experience the same success on the offensive end with Slafkosky at the wheel. Maryland would return to the NCAA semifinal in Slafkosky's first year with the offense in 1992. Under Slafkosky's tutelage, Mark Douglas would become a first-team All-American and establish the University of Maryland's single-season goal scoring mark of 51. In the same year, Rob Wurzburger would become the all-time career goal scorer with 137.



Maryland's offense would continue to be successful under Slafkosky's watch, qualifying for the NCAA's every year and reaching the finals in 1995. His most successful season came in 1995, with fellow assistant Scott Marr's new insight, as Maryland shattered the school's offensive record books. The Terps scored 235 goals and produced All-Americans in Kip Fulks and Rob Chomo. After the '95 season, Coach Slaf switched back to the defensive side knowing Maryland was in great shape with Marr running the offense.

Maryland's defense has become its trademark with its intimidating physical play. The Terps reached the finals in 1995, led by its National Defenseman of the Year, Dan Radebaugh. Defenseman Dave LaChapelle's play earned him second team All-America honors in 1997 and propelled the Terps into the championship game for the second time in three years.

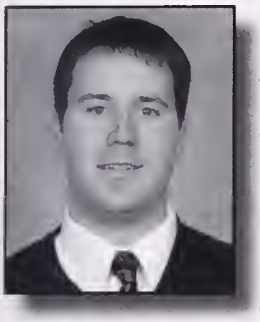
Slafkosky worked heavily with 1998 ACC Player of the Year Kevin Healy, who was also a second team All-American. Slafkosky added another All-American honoree to his resume as Chris Lamy was honored by the USILA following the 1999 campaign. The 2000 season saw the emergence of a new star in goal, Pat McGinnis, who was among the nation's leaders in save percentage and goals against average throughout the season. The year culminated with McGinnis one of two Terps named All-ACC. Along with McGinnis, senior defender Casey Connor was honored as well. The solid close defenseman earned second team USILA All-American honors. It marked the fifth straight year a Terp defender earned All-American accolades – all under the tutelage of Slafkosky.

A 1974 graduate of Johns Hopkins, Slafkosky led the Blue Jays to a national championship his senior year as a midfielder.

Slafkosky and his wife of 28 years, Michelle, are the parents of four children: Daniel, Sarah, Kevin and Alex. Slafkosky continues to keep the memory of his eldest son Daniel close to him. A U.S. Marine, Daniel passed away in December 2000 at the age of 20.

RYAN MORAN

ASSISTANT COACH • FIRST SEASON AT MARYLAND
MARYLAND '03



Former University of Maryland men's lacrosse All-American Ryan Moran returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach on September 22, 2008. He is responsible for coaching the Terrapin face-off men and helping with the offense.

Moran joined the Terps after serving as an assistant coach at the Naval Academy for the past three seasons, including serving as the team's offensive coordinator last season. While at Navy, Moran helped guide the Midshipmen to a pair of Patriot League championships and three NCAA Tournament appearances. Under his tutelage, the Navy face-off unit was one of the nation's best, winning better than 56 percent of its draws in each season. In addition to his coaching duties at the Naval Academy, Moran was also a combat instructor, teaching Wresting, Boxing, and Martial Arts.

A 2003 graduate of Maryland, Moran served several roles for the Terrapins during his four-year career. During his freshman and sophomore seasons, he was a short-stick defensive midfielder who contributed in the face-off game by playing on the wing, or taking the draws if needed.

When Coach Cottle arrived in College Park in 2002, Moran was made a focus of the offense in the midfield. In those two seasons under Cottle he scored a combined 39 goals, and added 11 assists, this after not scoring a goal in either of his first two years. He also won 50 percent (38-76) of the face-offs he took during his senior campaign.

A first team All-ACC selection and member of the ACC All-Tournament Team as a senior, Moran led the Terps to a 12-4 record in 2003 and an appearance in the Final Four. By year's end, Moran was one of just two players on Maryland's roster responsible for producing either a goal or an assist in every game except the Terrapins' NCAA semifinal contest against Virginia. He finished the season second on the team with 24 goals and tied for third on the squad with 31 points. For his efforts, Moran was named a USILA third team All-American.

The Baltimore Bayhawks selected Moran in the third round of the 2003 Major League Lacrosse College Draft, where he was the 18th overall pick. He saw action in eight of the Bayhawks' games as a rookie, and was traded to the Philadelphia Barrage at the end of the season. While in Philadelphia, he played in every game, drawing four starts and helped lead the Barrage to the MLL championship. He produced five goals and added five assists and owned a .510 face-off winning percentage. Moran was traded to the Long Island Lizards in 2005 where he scored 10 goals and added six helpers. Additionally, he won .510 of his face-offs in the 14 games in which he played. The Lizards went on to play in the championship game, but were tripped up by the Bayhawks.

Prior to joining the Navy coaching staff, Moran coached at the Naval Academy Prep School in Rhode Island in 2005. He led NAPS to a 10-1 record that featured wins over Army's JV team, as well as Army's prep school.

Coaching has been in the Moran family bloodline for years. Ryan's father, Jack, has been a successful lacrosse and football coach for the past two decades at Chaminade High School on Long Island. Ryan's great uncle, Richie, was a standout lacrosse player at Maryland (1958-60) before becoming one of the most successful lacrosse coaches in the country. He led Cornell to three national titles and is a member of the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame.

A native of Massapequa, N.Y., Moran is a 1999 graduate of Chaminade High School. A standout lacrosse and football player, Moran earned All-America and all-league lacrosse honors his senior year and played in the North-South Game upon graduation. Additionally, he was an all-league safety on the football team his junior and senior campaigns.

Moran and his wife, the former Danielle Shearer, who was a two-time All-American lacrosse player at Notre Dame, were married on August 1, 2008. The couple resides in Annapolis, Md.

JON STAINBROOK

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT • SEVENTH SEASON AT MARYLAND

NAZARETH '93

Former defensive coordinator Jon Stainbrook returned to the University of Maryland men's lacrosse program as a volunteer coach on Sept. 18, 2008. Stainbrook is responsible for assisting with the Terrapin defense and man-down unit.

Stainbrook spent six seasons with Maryland men's lacrosse program from 1997-2002. During that time the Terps made four NCAA Tournament appearances, including two trips to the NCAA Championship game.

In 2002, Stainbrook's final season with the Terps, the Maryland defense led the nation in scoring defense, allowing an NCAA-best 7.0 goals per game. Goalie Danny McCormick also thrived playing behind Stainbrook's defense, leading the nation with a 6.73 goals-against average.

In 2001, the Maryland defense had another stellar season as one of the nation's top units. The Terps ranked second in the nation in goals against average, giving up just 6.31 goals per game. First team All-America goalie Pat McGinnis and second team All-America defenseman Michael Howley had rock-solid seasons in helping Maryland to its near-record performance.

Maryland's man-down defense was also one of the nation's best under Stainbrook, killing off 81.9 percent of the penalties without allowing a goal in 2001. The unit ranked third in the nation by holding opponents scoreless in 77 of 94 chances with an extra man.

During his previous stint at Maryland, Stainbrook coached several USILA All-Americans on close defense including: Dave LaChapelle, Chris Lamy, Casey Connor, Michael Howley, Chris Passavia and Lee Zink.

Stainbrook joined the Terrapin staff in 1997 after serving as defensive coach at Division III power Nazareth College. Stainbrook helped lead the Golden Flyers to a 36-6 record over three seasons, including three consecutive NCAA semifinal appearances and the National Championship in 1995.

In his playing days, Stainbrook was a defenseman for Herkimer County Community College and Cortland State University. Stainbrook served as a team captain for both squads. Stainbrook graduated from Nazareth with a Bachelor's degree in political science and a Master's degree in education. He also graduated in 1999 from the Maryland School of Public Affairs with a Master's of Public Management in international security and economic policy.

Stainbrook works as a consultant for the United States Government, is single, and lives in Gaithersburg, MD.

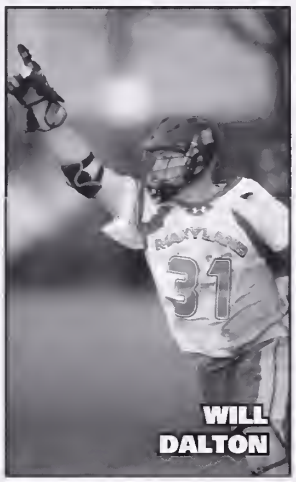
2008 REVIEW NOTEBOOK

LACROSSE HANDS OUT TEAM AWARDS

The Maryland men's lacrosse team and head coach Dave Cottle welcomed back the 2008 seniors that helped the Terps make four-straight NCAA tournament appearances, on Sunday, October 19, for the annual awards banquet at Sprint Heritage Hall in the Comcast Center on the campus of the University of Maryland.

The highlight of the afternoon's awards was the presentation of the "Big Man" Award, given in honor of former coach Dick Edell. The award was created to honor the player that best exemplified the selfless and positive qualities of the retired coach. The 2008 award was given to midfielder Will Dalton.



The Daniel Slafkosky Coach's Award was also given out, in memory of assistant coach Dave Slafkosky's son, who passed away prior to the 2001 season. The coaches chose this year's recipient, defender Zach Hinton, as the player who best illustrated Dan's positive attitude on and off the field.

The Edwin Powell Award, which is presented to the Team MVP, was given to Joe Cinosky. The native of Boonton Township, N.J., was a second team USILA All-American.

Other awards given out in honor of individual accomplishments throughout the 2008 season were:

Van Trump Award for best overall attackman: Ryan Young

Deckman-Silber Award for best overall defenseman: Joe Cinosky

William Cole Award for best overall midfielder: Jeff Reynolds

Dan Snyder Award for Most Improved Player: Brett Schmidt

Levitt Memorial Award for the best freshman: Grant Catalino and Ryan Yong

Faber Heagy Award for the team's Unsung Hero: Jacob Baxter

Scholar-Athlete Award: Drew Evans

Man-Down Award: Ryne Adolph

"Be The Best" Strength & Conditioning Award: Ryne Adolph

"Iron Terp" for the strongest Terp pound-for-pound: Jason Carter

Hammer Award for the biggest hitter in 2008: Joe Cinosky

THREE TERPS NAMED ALL-AMERICANS

Senior defender Joe Cinosky, redshirt junior midfielder Jeff Reynolds and sophomore long pole Brian Farrell were named to USILA All-America teams, which were announced during the Final Four in Foxborough, Mass.

Cinosky was named to the second team, while Reynolds and Farrell were honorable mention selections.

Cinosky, who was named a preseason All-American by Inside Lacrosse, was the Terps' best overall player throughout the 2008 season, according to head coach Dave Cottle, and earned the first All-America honor of his career. The Boonton Township, N.J., native led Maryland with 31 caused turnovers and was second on the squad with 46 groundballs.

Reynolds, a native of Bel Air, Md., earned his first All-America selection after leading all Terrapin midfielders with 19 goals, which ranked third on the team. An all-around midfielder, Reynolds also finished the year among the team's top 10 in groundballs (36) and caused turnovers (10). Reynolds returned to the Maryland line-up this season after missing nearly the entire 2007 season after suffering a torn ACL in the Terps' second game of the year.

Farrell, a native of Towson, Md., was selected for his first All-America honor after leading all ACC defenders in scoring with eight goals and three assists for 11 points. The 6-foot-5, 240-pound long pole was also fourth on the team with 40 groundballs and second with 23 caused turnovers. In just two seasons Farrell has 20 points on 13 goals and seven assists.

CINOSKY TAKEN IN FIRST ROUND OF MLL DRAFT

All-America defender Joe Cinosky was selected by the New Jersey Pride with the ninth pick in the first round of the 2008 Major League Lacrosse collegiate draft on May 28. Overall, four Maryland players were selected in the five-round draft.

Cinoksy, a native of Boonton Township, N.J., is a three-time All-American is the fourth Terrapin to go in the first round of the MLL Draft in the past three years.

Later on in the summer, Cinosky was a first round pick of the Minnesota Swarm in the National Lacrosse League's 2008 Entry Draft.

DAVE COTTLE NAMED 2008 ACC COACH OF THE YEAR

For the second time in the last five seasons Maryland head coach Dave Cottle was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Men's Lacrosse Coach of the Year as selected by a vote of the league's four coaches.

Cottle led the Terrapins to a 2-1 conference record and a number two seed in the ACC Tournament. He previously won the award in 2004 and is the only coach in the conference to win the award twice in the past five seasons.

Maryland is the only team in the conference to have won at least one of the three individual awards in each of the past three seasons. (Joe Walters - 2006 Player of the Year, Brian Phipps - 2007 Freshman of the Year, Dave Cottle - 2008 Coach of the Year).

YOUTH MOVEMENT

How young was the 2008 Maryland team? Consider this ... a total of 31 Terps have played in at least 12 games last season and 14 of those were freshmen or sophomores.

Maryland's top three scorers were freshmen. Seven of the top 11 grounball totals belonged to sophomores or freshmen. Six of the 12 leaders in caused turnovers were also in their first or second seasons.

With 16 games played there was a total of 160 starts and 64 of those were made by sophomores or freshmen - that's 40% of the team's total starting positions.

SCHMIDT AND YOUNG HELP LEAD U.S. TO U-19 GOLD MEDAL

Maryland rising sophomores Max Schmidt and Ryan Young helped lead the U.S U-19 team to a gold medal at the 2008 IFL World Championship at Coquitlam, British Columbia in July.

Young was a key figures on offense for the Red, White and Blue as the U.S. team raised it's U-19 winning streak to 36. Young totaled 19 points during the team's seven games and led the squad in assists. In the 19-12 victory over Canada in the gold medal game Young chipped in three points for the U.S. squad.

Schmidt started several of the U.S.'s seven games and played a significant role in a defense that allowed just 8.3 goals per game.

MORAN AND STAINBROOK RETURN TO COLLEGE PARK

Two familiar faces returned to the Maryland men's lacrosse program in the offseason. Former All-America midfielder Ryan Moran returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach, while former defensive coordinator John Stainbrook returned after a six-year hiatus as the team's volunteer assistant coach.

GAME 1

NO. 7 MARYLAND 11
NO. 4 GEORGETOWN.....6
FEBRUARY 23, 2008
MULTI-SPORT FIELD

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Youth was served in the University of Maryland's men's lacrosse season opener as four Terrapin freshmen combined for nine goals in No. 7 Maryland's 11-6 victory over fourth-ranked Georgetown at the Hoyas' Multi-Sport Field.

Grant Catalino, who scored a game-high four goals, got the ball rolling for the Terps with an unassisted goal at the 9:35 mark. The freshman from Webster, N.Y., picked up a groundball off of a shot by fellow Terp freshman Travis Reed that hit the right post. Catalino scooped up the ball and quickly put the ball past Hoya goalie Miles Kass for a 1-0 Terrapin lead.

Georgetown and Maryland traded rapid-fire goals over the next two minutes of play. Andrew Brancaccio scored to tie the game at 8:50. Senior co-captain Will Dalton used the NCAA's new face-off rule to give the Terps a 2-1 lead on the ensuing face-off. Georgetown's Brian Taubb was whistled for moving early on the draw giving Maryland a fast-break opportunity. Dalton took full advantage by racing down the middle of the field and burying a shot from 10 yards out. Brendan Cannon scored his only goal of the game off of a rebound off the post to knot the score at 2-2.

But that's as close as the Hoyas would get to taking a lead in the game as Maryland ripped off the next five goals.

Freshman Ryan Young scored the first goal of his career, beating All-America defender Jerry Lambe around the back of the net before finishing with a nifty one-handed wraparound goal into the top left corner of the goal. Catalino scored his second of the game, converting on a man-up opportunity off an assist from Dan Groot.

Maryland closed out the first quarter with a 5-2 lead thanks to a high-bounce goal by redshirt junior Jeff Reynolds with just 15 seconds left on the clock.

The quarter break did little to stifle the Maryland momentum as the Terps tacked on another score - by another freshman - just 15 seconds into the period. Sophomore long pole controlled the ball off of the opening face-off and fed perfect pass to Travis Reed on the right wing, where he laced a shot into the Hoyas goal.

The freshman train kept rolling for the Terps with midfielder Tony Mendes who connected on his first career score at the 9:56 mark of the second quarter. The Chapel Hill, N.C., native got some separation with a great split dodge to the middle of the field and fired the ball into the top right corner of the goal.

After the Hoyas scored to make the game 7-3, Catalino scored his third of the game off an assist from junior midfielder Jeremy Sieverts to lift Maryland's lead back to five. Georgetown would convert on a man-up opportunity for the half's final score to cut its deficit to four at the half.

But Maryland came out of the intermission and scored off of the ensuing face-off. Georgetown won the draw, but Maryland forced a turnover near midfield. Yound scooped up the loose ball and hit a 40-yard shot for his second goal of the game. Kass had come out away from the net as the Hoyas attempted to clear the ball into the Maryland zone, leaving an empty net for Young.

Young picked up his first collegiate assist on Maryland's next goa, feeding Reed on the right wing from behind the goal. Reed then hit a quick low shot to give Maryland a 10-4 lead.

Georgetown's Jake Samperton scored at the 6:15 mark of the third period, but Catalino, off another assist by Sieverts, rolled around and over a pair of Hoya defenders for his fourth goal of the game.

The fourth quarter saw only one goal, a man-up score by Georgetown's Craig Dowd off an assist by Cannon at the 6:45 mark. The Terps used a controlled, patient offense to run out the clock and take home the victory.

Redshirt junior Jason Carter, who missed all of 2007 with a broken collarbone, earned the start in cage for the Terps and made seven saves. He gave way to sophomore Brian Phipps in the second half and the 2007 Freshman of the Year allowed just two goals, while making three stops.

GAME 2

NO. 4 MARYLAND 17
MOUNT ST. MARY'S 7
FEBRUARY 26, 2008
WALDRON FAMILY STADIUM

EMMITSBURG, Md. - Freshman Travis Reed totaled five points to lead the No. 4 University of Maryland men's lacrosse team to a 17-7 win over Mount St. Mary's at a rain-soaked Waldron Family Stadium.

The Terps opened the game with a four-goal blitz in the opening three minutes. Freshman Grant Catalino continued where he left off from the Georgetown game with two goals in the opening salvo. Senior Will Dalton and freshman Ryan Young had the other two tallies for the Terrapins.

Reed continued the onslaught, building the lead to 6-0 for Maryland with the next two Terrapin goals. The Mount cut the lead to 6-2 at the end of the first quarter on goals by Geery Grant and Brendan Harrison.

The second quarter started with a pair of man-up goals from Reed on assists by Dan Groot and Catalion, respectively. Sophomore Adam Sear scored the first of his two goals on the day with an unassisted goal at the 10:48 mark to make the score 9-2. Groot scored his first of the season on a rocket to the upper left corner to finish the Maryland scoring in the first half. Mount St. Mary's picked up a goal from Jim O'Shea to make the score 10-3 at the half.

Sear's second score, off an assist from Groot, came less than two minutes into the third quarter and was followed closely by an unassisted goal by Jeff Reynolds that made the score 12-3. A goal by the Mount's Dan Mohr at the 7:50 mark set off another three-goal spurt for the Terps to end the third period with Young, Catalino and Groot picking up the scores on assists by Dean Hart, Brett Weiss and Reed, respectively.

The Mount began the fourth with a goal by Joe Derwent at the 12:22 mark. Maryland upped its lead to 16-5 around the nine-minute mark when Weiss scored his first career goal.

Junior attackman Scott Tompkins finished the scoring for the Terps with his first goal of the season at the 1:56 mark of the fourth off an assist by junior long pole Chris Rhine.

The final scored came as time expired Geery picked up his second goal of the game off an assist by Mohr.

All four of Maryland's goalies saw action with Brian Phipps, Jason Carter and freshman Mark White, who made his collegiate debut, each making one save.

Defensively, Maryland was led by sophomore Bryn Holmes who won 9-of-10 face-offs, caused two turnovers and picked up five groundballs. Junior Mike Griswold chipped in with three caused turnovers and one groundball, while Spencer McAllister and Tony Mendes each had two caused turnovers. Dalton, Reynolds, Max Schmidt, Brian Farrell, Dan Halayko each had three groundballs for the Terps.

GAME 3

NO. 2 DUKE 15
NO. 4 MARYLAND 7
MARCH 1, 2008
KOSKINEN STADIUM

DURHAM, N.C. - Freshman attackman Travis Reed scored three goals for the No. 4 Maryland men's lacrosse team, but it wasn't enough to overcome the No. 2 Duke Blue Devils who topped the Terps, 15-7, at Koskinen Stadium.

Midfielder Brad Ross had two goals for the Blue Devils in the first quarter to help Duke pull out to a 6-2 lead at the first quarter-break. With Duke holding a 1-0 lead a pair of freshmen combined to tie the game for Maryland. Reed finished a wrap-around goal off of a pass by Ryan Young. The Blue Devils scored the game's next five goals to build a 6-1 lead before junior midfielder Jeremy Sieverts gave the Terps some momentum with his first goal of the season on a terrific hustle-play. Sieverts finished the effort with a low shot past Duke goalie Dan Loftus.

Duke kept the pressure on in the second quarter with three consecutive scores to build a seven-goal lead. Reed gave Maryland its only score of the second period with a fine individual effort at the 1:35 mark. He rolled around the left side of the cage, split three defenders and somehow got off a one-handed shot, which bounced past sever Duke defenders and Loftus, who lost sight of the ball in the scrum.

Sieverts opened the third quarter with another unassisted goal. This time Sieverts weaved his way through several Blue Devil defenders on the left crease and hit a shot from inside six yards. That was all the offense for the Terps, but Duke added onto its lead with three scores for a 12-4 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

After the Blue Devils scored on the face-off to begin the fourth period, Reed answered back with his third score of the game off of another assist by Young. Ross answered that for Duke with his own hat trick at the 12:04 mark. Senior Max Ritz scored his first goal of the season, but the Blue Devils answered right back with another unanswered goal to make the score 15-6. Junior Spencer McAllister tacked on Maryland's final score off an assist by Scott Tompkins.

NO. 6 MARYLAND 13
PROVIDENCE.....5
MARCH 3, 2008
LUDWIG FIELD

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Hat tricks are becoming old hat for Travis Reed. The freshman attackman netted his third straight hat trick to help lead the No. 6 Maryland men's lacrosse team to a dominating 13-5 win over Providence in the Terps' 2008 home opener at Ludwig Field.

Reed, a native of Cockeysville, Md., scored three times, including an extra-man goal that proved to be the eventual game-winner, in just over three minutes of play from the end of the first quarter to less than a minute into the second. Reed is the first Terrapin since Brendan Healy in 2006 to have a hat trick in three consecutive games. Reed's scores came in the middle of an 8-0 Maryland run that the Terps never looked back from.

The Maryland offense was bottled up at the beginning of the game, but junior All-America midfielder Dan Groot started the ball rolling at the 6:00 mark with a runner along the left alley for a 1-0 Terrapin lead. Groot picked up an assist on the next Maryland score, an extra-man goal by senior midfielder Max Ritz.

Freshman attackman Ryan Young then scored his first of two goals on the day off an assist from fellow freshman Grant Catalino, Reed's back-to-back-to-back goals gave the Terrapins a 6-0 lead just seconds into the second quarter.

Junior midfielder Jeremy Sieverts scored off of an assist from freshman Brett Weiss. The 8-0 run was capped off by a nice finish by junior attackman Scott Tompkins, who buried a shot from the left alley following a terrific skip-pass from freshman midfielder Tony Mendes.

The Friars' Devin McBride scored the first of his two goals to finish the scoring in the first half with Maryland holding an 8-1 advantage.

Maryland picked up an empty-netter by sophomore long pole Dan Halayko to open the scoring in the second half. Providence goalie Robert Bryan tried to clear the ball by running through the midfield, but he was stripped by Reed. Halayko then scooped up the groundball, ran into the Friar side of the field and laced a shot from roughly 30 yards into a wide-open net for his first career goal.

Young scored his second of the game less than a minute later to build the lead to 10-1 for the Terps. Providence scored consecutive goals by McBride and Jackson Fallon as the third quarter came to a close.

The fourth quarter opened with an unassisted goal by Mendes at the 11:31 mark. Redshirt junior midfielder Jeff Reynolds took the opening face-off following a Friar goal by Mark Dillon down the field and answered with an unassisted goal of his own to make it a 12-4 Terrapin advantage.

Tompkins closed out the scoring for the Terps with his second goal of the day off the first career assist by Seattle, Wash., native Drew Snider. Providence's Mike Feldberg scored with 21 seconds left to end the game with the 13-5 final score.

Maryland's goalies were not really challenged much in the game. The Terrapin defense was stifling, holding the Friars to just 14 shots on the afternoon. Providence did not get off its first shot until the 7:04 mark of the second quarter, going a span of 22:56 without a shot to open the game. Sophomore Brian Phipps got the start in the cage for the Terps and made two saves. He was relieved in the second half by redshirt junior Jason Carter who stopped three Friar shots.

The Terrapin defense was led by sophomore long pole Brian Farrell, who tied his career-bests with four groundballs and three caused turnovers. Sophomore Bryn Holmes also had four groundballs to go along with two caused turnovers. Senior defenders Ryne Adolph, Zach Hinton and Joe Cinosky, along with Halayko, also had two groundballs apiece for the Maryland defense.

The Terps were aggressive all day when the ball hit the turf and finished with a 42-22 advantage in groundballs. The Terrapin man-down unit was also impressive, holding the Friars without a score in five extra-man opportunities, including a two-minute stretch in the third quarter.

GAME 5

NO. 6 MARYLAND 12
NO. 18 TOWSON.....7
MARCH 8, 2008
LUDWIG FIELD

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Dan Groot scored three times and Ryan Young dished out four assists to lead the No. 6 Maryland men's lacrosse team to a 12-7 win over No. 18 Towson at a soggy Ludwig Field.

The Terrapins dominated the game in the trenches, winning 16-of-23 face-offs and taking the groundball battle, 53-31. Sophomore Bryn Holmes, nine wins, and senior Will Dalton, seven wins, were the catalysts for the Terps and combined for nine groundballs. Nine different Terps had at least four groundballs, led by senior defender Ryne Adolph, who picked up a career-best six off the turf.

The Terrapin offense was solid, but sloppy field conditions limited quality scoring opportunities in the first half. After junior midfielder Jeremy Sieverts gave the Terps a 1-0 lead with an unassisted runner down the left alley, Groot and Young hooked up for Maryland's second goal at the 11:06 mark. Towson then got on the board with an unassisted goal by Matt Hanzsche.

Sophomore long pole Brian Farrell scored his first of two goals on the day off an assist by redshirt freshman Dan Burns to give Maryland another two-goal lead. That play was made possible by a terrific hustle play that doesn't show up in the boxscore. Redshirt junior goalie Jason Carter beat a Tiger attackman to be nearest to the ball following a shot to give Maryland possession and start the Terps' transition attack that led to the Farrell score. Towson's Blake Best, playing in his first game of the season, scored for the Tigers with a little more than a minute left in the first quarter to trim the lead back to one.

Groot netted his second off an assist from Sieverts less than a minute into the second quarter, but Towson rallied to tie the score at 4-4 off goals by Randall Cooper and Eric Boyle. But Maryland would take a one-goal lead into halftime thanks to redshirt junior midfielder Jeff Reynolds, who laced a shot past Tiger goalie Billy Sadtler to make the score 5-4 for the Terps.

Reynolds continued his hot shooting in the third quarter with another unassisted goal to give him the first multi-goal game of his career. Towson's Jonathan Engelke scored nine seconds later off the ensuing face-off, but that was as close as the Tigers would get to the Terps. Maryland got back-to-back-to-back goals by freshman Grant Catalino, Dalton and freshman Travis Reed to build a 9-6 lead that it never relinquished.

Towson tried to rally and got back to within two on goals by Brian Vetter and Kyle Smedley in the final 45 seconds of the third quarter, but the Terps wore down the Tigers in the fourth quarter. In that decisive final period Maryland outscored Towson 3-0, had a 9-3 shot advantage, won all four face-offs and had a 15-6 lead in groundballs.

Catalino had the highlight goal of the fourth quarter at the 7:22 mark. The 6-foot-5, 240-pound attackman dodged one Tiger defender in front of the goal and whirled around twice through a couple more Towson players before connecting on a shot from a yard or so in front of the crease.

Young picked up assists number three and four on the final two Terrapin scores. The first of which came on Farrell's second goal, a wild no-look backhander that sneaked past goalie Matt Antol, who took over for Sadtler at the start of the third quarter. Groot closed out the scoring with his third of the game as Young hit him cutting through the left alley for an easy finish.

Maryland sophomore Brian Phipps made seven saves while playing the final 30 minutes for the Terrapins. Carter was also solid, stopping six Tiger shots in his 30 minutes of work.

In addition to the Terrapins solid work on the ground, the Maryland defense dogged the Tigers throughout the contest, forcing 16 of Towson's 23 turnovers. Leading the way was senior defender Joe Cinosky with four caused turnovers.

GAME 6

NO. 19 UMBC 9 (3OT)
NO. 6 MARYLAND 8

MARCH 14, 2008
UMBC STADIUM

BALTIMORE, Md. - The sixth-ranked University of Maryland men's lacrosse team dropped a 9-8 decision in three overtimes at No. 19 UMBC at a rainy UMBC Stadium. Midfielder Maxx Davis scored the game-winning goal with 1.5 seconds left in the third overtime to give the Retrievers the victory.

The Retrievers took control of the first quarter right from the get-go. UMBC's Terry Kimener scored an unassisted goal less than two minutes into the game. Maryland freshman Tony Mendes knotted the score at 1-1 after finishing a score from the left side of the crease off of a great skip pass from junior midfielder Jeremy Sieverts. UMBC built the lead to 3-1 before the end of the period on goals by Matt Lathan and Alex Hopmann.

The Terps rallied in the second quarter, scoring the first three goals of the period to take a 4-3 lead. Freshman attackman Grant Catalino scored the first goal of the quarter for the Terrapins, ripping a shot into the upper left corner of the Retriever goal. Sophomore long pole Brian Farrell shoveled in the next goal, following his own shot that was saved by UMBC goalie Jeremy Blevins, but Farrell was able to poke the rebound past Blevins to tie the game.

Redshirt junior midfielder Jeff Reynolds gave Maryland its first lead at the 5:18 mark on a high-bouncing shot from about 10 yards out along the left alley. Hopmann sent the game to halftime as a 4-4 tie off an assist from Kimener with just more than two minutes remaining on the clock.

After a scoreless third period for both teams, UMBC climbed back on top with back-to-back goals by Kyle Wimer and Hopmann. The Terps cut the lead to 6-5 on a goal by Ritz off an assist by senior midfielder Drew Evans. After Wilmer built the lead back to two on his second goal of the quarter, Maryland went on a 3-0 run to take an 8-7 lead with just under two minutes remaining.

Will Dalton won the ensuing face-off after Wilmer's goal and raced down the middle of the field and beat Blevins with an over-handed bounce shot. Evans pulled the game even at 7-7, alcing a shot from the left alley off an assist from freshman attackman Ryan Young. Ritz capped the scoring blitz with a man-up goal, off an assist from Catalino, at the 1:50 mark to give the Terrapins the lead, but only for mere moments.

Retriever attackman Ryan Smith, who was bottled up for most of the game by a tenacious Maryland defense, hit a jumping turn-around shot from eight yards out with just 5.8 seconds remaining to send the game into overtime.

Dalton was stellar for the Terps on face-offs, winning 12-of-18 draws and picking up a career-best 11 groundballs.

GAME 7

NO. 6 MARYLAND 16
AIR FORCE 4

MARCH 16, 2008
LUDWIG FIELD

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Freshman attackman Ryan Young had four assists for the second time this season to lead the sixth-ranked University of Maryland men's lacrosse team in a 16-4 romp over Air Force at Ludwig Field.

The Falcons (1-4) took an early 1-0 lead on Griffin Nevitt's unassisted goal at the 11:09 mark. Maryland responded with three straight goals by freshman Grant Catalino, sophomore Brian Farrell and junior All-American Dan Groot.

Nevitt and Tristan Newkirk scored for Air Force in the span of 27 seconds near the end of the first quarter to tie the game at 3-3, but that's where the Falcon upset bid came to an end. On the ensuing face-off, just eight seconds following Newkirk's score, senior face-off man Will Dalton took advantage of a procedure call against Air Force and rumbled down the center of the field and fired a shot past Falcon goalie Woody Johnson to give Maryland a 4-3 lead and start a 13-0 scoring run for the Terps.

Freshman Travis Reed, who was one of eight Terrapins with multiple points in the game, scored the eventual game winner off of Young's second assist of the game. Redshirt junior goalie Jason Carter, who made a career-best nine saves in just 30:00 of work, started the play for the next Maryland score with a terrific save on a Brian Massa shot. Farrell scooped up the groundball off the rebound and flipped a pass to senior defender Joe Cinosky, who was streaking through the midfield. Cinosky carried the ball into the Maryland attack zone, drew a couple of Falcon defenders to him and slipped a nifty pass to junior attackman Danny Gallagher, who beat Johnson from the left wing.

Redshirt junior midfielder Jeff Reynolds closed out the scoring in the first half for the Terps with his first of two goals on the day at the 4:30 mark in the second quarter.

Catalino and Dalton each scored their second goals of the day to open the second half. After assisting on Dalton's second score, senior midfielder Drew Evans got into the scoring act himself, connecting on a great pick-and-roll play with Young, who picked up his third assist on the day.

Junior midfielder Rob Morrison then scored his first career goal and followed that up with his second career goal less than two minutes later. Morrison's first goal came on a blistering low-to-high shot from the right wing that found the upper left corner of the net. His second goal, which gave Maryland a 12-3 advantage, gave Young his fourth assist and his second four-assist game of the season.

Senior midfielder Max Ritz scored the game's only man-up goal off an assist by Reed. Combined with an assist on Catalino's third quarter goal, Ritz's two-point game gives him 99 points in his career.

Reynolds and junior defensive midfielders Chris Rhine and Spencer McAllister finished the scoring for the Terps. Redshirt freshman Dan Burns and junior attackman Scott Tompkins picked up assists on Rhine's and McAllister's goals, respectively.

After withstanding the Falcons' spirited first quarter, the Maryland defense turned in an outstanding team effort, holding Air Force without a goal for 44:03 spanning the final 22 seconds of the first quarter to the 1:19 mark of the fourth quarter when the Falcons' Ridge Flick scored the game's final goal.

Cinosky, a preseason All-American, led the Terrapin defense with a career-best five groundballs along with three caused turnovers. Farrell also had five groundballs and a pair of caused turnovers. For the game, Maryland had a 52-29 advantage in groundballs with seven Terps having at least three groundballs.

GAME 8

NO. 5 NORTH CAROLINA 8
NO. 9 MARYLAND 13

FETZER FIELD

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Redshirt junior midfielder Jeff Reynolds scored his first career hat trick to lead the No. 9 University of Maryland men's lacrosse team to a decisive 13-8 win over fifth-ranked North Carolina at Fetzer Field.

After Bart Wagner gave UNC a 1-0 lead just one minute into the game, the Terps got a lucky break at the 8:41 mark to tie the score. Carolina goalie Grant Zimmerman brought the ball near midfield on an attempted clear, but his pass attempt was picked off by junior midfielder Jeremy Sieverts, who brought the ball just across the midfield stripe before ripping a long shot into the empty Tar Heel goal.

UNC grabbed a 2-1 lead on a Bobby McAuley goal at the 7:26 mark. This time it was sophomore Adam Sear that had the answer for the Terps. The midfielder from Perth, Western Australia, ran by a UNC defender on the left wing and beat Zimmerman top side for a 2-2 tie.

Reynolds fought through a scrum for the ensuing face-off and pushed the ball straight down the middle of the field. No Carolina defender stepped out to pick up Reynolds, so he fired an overhand shot at the feet of Zimmerman for his ninth goal of the season.

The see-saw game continued at the beginning of the second quarter with UNC tying the score at 3-3 on Michael B. Burns' goal at 10.17. But the tie wouldn't last long thanks to Maryland co-captain Will Dalton. The 6-foot-4, 270-pound midfielder started out high on the left alley and crossed over, bull-dodging his way down the right side before beating Zimmerman for the 4-3 lead.

Maryland's lead grew to 5-3 less than two minutes later when junior midfielder Dan Groot skipped a pass to senior middie Max Ritz on the left alley. Ritz then laced a skip shot into the lower left corner of the Carolina goal for the score.

An unsportsmanlike conduct penalty by UNC's Brian Burke gave the Terps an extra-man opportunity and Maryland made the Tar Heels pay. Freshman attackman Travis Reed netted his fourth man-up goal of the season off an assist by Ritz for a 6-3 Maryland advantage.

The 3-0 Maryland run was interrupted by a bit of bad luck. After he made a save on a Groot, Zimmerman picked up the groundball and tried to run the ball out of danger, but freshman attackman Ryan Young's feet inadvertently got caught up with Zimmerman's giving UNC a one-minute man-advantage. But the Tar Heels didn't need that long. Cryder DiPietro scored from the right alley seconds into the penalty to cut the lead to 6-4 at 2:22.

But the momentum swung Maryland's way again less than 30 seconds following DiPietro's goal when freshman attackman Grant Catalino scored an unassisted goal at the 1:59 mark to send the game to the half with the Terps holding a 7-4 lead.

For the third consecutive quarter the Tar Heels drew first blood when Ben Hunt scored an unassisted goal at the 13:35 mark. But for the third straight time the Terps answered right back. Reynolds scored his second of the game on a running jump shot from the right alley to boost the lead back to three goals.

After more than eight scoreless minutes Maryland added another goal to build a 9-5 lead. Senior midfielder Drew Evans ran past a Tar Heel defender behind the left side of the UNC goal and slipped a shot past Zimmerman.

An extra-man opportunity, thanks to a pair of penalties on UNC's Rob Driscoll, let the Terps draw first blood at the beginning of the fourth quarter. After the ball circled around the perimeter, Sieverts dropped a quick pass to freshman attackman Brett Weiss on the left side of the crease where he tucked a quick shot into the left side of the Tar Heel net.

Reynolds continued his scoring barrage at the 11:47 mark with a man-down goal. The play started when sophomore midfielder Bryn Holmes intercepted a Tar Heel pass in front of the Maryland goal. The lead grew to 12-5 just over two minutes later when Maryland converted on another man-up chance. Catalino dumped a pass inside to Weiss, who quickly turned and shot.

Carolina scored three straight goals to cut the lead to 12-8, but UNC chose to bring Zimmerman out of the net to double-team the ball. That didn't work the way the Tar Heels planned as Groot split the double-team and scored an empty-netter to give the Terps a five-goal cushion at 13-8 with 4:10 remaining and that's how the game would end, giving the Terps their first ACC win of the season.

Senior All-America defender Joe Cinosky continued his stellar play, leading the Terps with four groundballs and a pair of caused turnovers. Holmes and freshman defender Max Schmidt each had a pair of caused turnovers in the Terrapin victory. Sophomore goalie Brian Phipps picked up the win in the cage for Maryland after making five saves in 30:00 of work.

GAME 9

NO. 4 MARYLAND 13
NO. 1 VIRGINIA.....7

MARCH 29, 2008
CHEVY CHASE BANK FIELD AT BYRD STADIUM

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Redshirt junior goalie Jason Carter had a career-day, making a career-best 15 saves, to help lead the fourth-ranked University of Maryland men's lacrosse team to a 13-7 win over No. 1 Virginia in front of more than 4,000 fans at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium and a national television audience tuning in on ESPN2.

The Terps' victory over the top-ranked Cavaliers is the programs' first win over a No. 1 team at home since 1996 when Maryland topped Virginia 13-11. The last time Maryland dropped a No. 1 team overall was on March 4, 2006 when the Terps took down No. 1 Duke, 8-7 in overtime, at Koskinen Stadium in Durham, N.C.

Carter and the entire Terrapin defense were spectacular in the cage for the Terps, especially in the first half. The Crownsville, Md., native made seven of his 15 saves in the first 30:00 to help Maryland hold the Cavaliers to just three goals, allowing the Terrapin offense to build a 9-3 lead at the half. Coming into the game, Virginia had been averaging more than eight goals per game in the first half and had not trailed at halftime in any game this year.

While the defense took care of business on its end of the field, the Maryland offense was clicking on all cylinders at the other side of the field. The freshman attack trio of Travis Reed, Grant Catalino and Ryan Young combined for six goals and three assists. Young got the ball rolling for Maryland with the game's opening goal at the 13:01 mark.

Redshirt junior Jeff Reynolds continued his hot shooting streak, scoring the next two goals to give the Terps a 3-0 lead with less than five minutes elapsed. Reynolds' first score came off a face-off, which was won by sophomore Bryn Holmes. Holmes was jumped as he entered the Cavalier box, but was able to flip the ball to Reynolds, who got a shot past Virginia goalie Adam Ghitelman.

Virginia finally got on the board at the 3:34 mark on an unassisted goal by Peter Lamade, but Maryland responded with back-to-back goals by Reed and senior midfielder Will Dalton to boost the lead to 5-1. Reed scored on a wrap-around shot from behind the right side of the Wahoo goal. Dalton, who won 8-of-14 face-offs on the day, took then ensuing draw straight down the field and beat Ghitelman from the right alley.

Brian Carroll seemed to give Virginia a little momentum with a man-up goal at the 10:45 mark, but it was Maryland that would go on a run and really take control of the game. Dalton won the face-off following Carroll's score and it took the Terps just 61 seconds to strike back. Young skipped a pass to Reed on the left side, where the Cockeysville, Md., native ripped a shot into the Virginia net.

Reed followed that up with his third goal of the game on a low shot from the left wing. The Terrapin lead grew to 9-2 on unassisted goals by junior midfielder Rob Morrison and freshman Tony Mendes. Virginia was able to cut the lead to six going into halftime thanks to another goal by Lamade.

The Wahoos came out of the break looking to whittle away at the Maryland lead and back-to-back goals by Ben Rubeor and Rhamel Bratton had it down to four, the closest it had been since the 9:37 mark of the second quarter.

But the Terps would not allow the game to slip away from them and responded with a pair of goals of their own. Reed found Reynolds open on the right alley and the Bel Air, Md., native ripped an overhand shot past Ghitelman for his second straight hat trick. Catalino followed that up with his first goal of the game, an unassisted score from the left alley. The freshman from Webster, N.Y., used his entire 6-foot-5 frame to screen Ghitelman, who didn't see the shot until it was already in the goal.

For the third-straight quarter, Virginia closed the scoring, this time on Bratton's second goal of the period to send Maryland into the final 15 minutes with an 11-6 lead.

That lead grew to six goals just 10 seconds into the quarter thanks to an incredible individual effort by Catalino. With Virginia's Matt Kelly draped all over his back, Catalino was able find a way to get off a good shot that found a way into the Cavalier goal.

Both defenses controlled much of the fourth quarter and it was fitting that a defensive player netted the Terps' final goal of the game. Sophomore long pole Brian Farrell finished a successful clear for Maryland and used a terrific ball fake to get a clear shot at the Virginia goal and the Towson, Md., native buried a shot for his fifth goal of the season.

Virginia's Garrett Billings scored the game's final goal at the 1:06 mark to make the final score 13-7 in favor of the Terps.

Maryland's face-off duo of Holmes and Dalton controlled the tempo of the game at the face-off X, winning 15-of-23 draws and picking up four groundballs apiece.

GAME 10

NO. 9 NAVY 5
NO. 3 MARYLAND 4

APRIL 4, 2008
CHEVY CHASE BANK FIELD AT BYRD STADIUM

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The University of Maryland men's lacrosse team mounted a valiant comeback attempt, but it fell one goal short in a 5-4 loss to No. 9 Navy in front of 7,106 fans at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium.

The Midshipmen built a 5-0 lead through the first 30 minutes of play, but the Terps came out from halftime determined to climb back into the contest.

The Terrapins were finally able to break through a staunch Navy defense at the 4:04 mark of the third quarter. Freshman attackman Ryan Young picked up the first of his two assists by dumping a pass to the right side of the crease where senior midfielder Drew Evans banged it home to get the Terps on the board.

Senior Max Ritz and junior Dan Groot hooked up for the next two Maryland scores, converting on both of the Terrapins' man-up opportunities. Groot scored with 1:30 left in the third off an assist by Ritz. Groot then returned the favor by assisting Ritz's man-up score at the 9:30 mark. That goal made the game 5-3 in favor of Navy, but all of the momentum was on Maryland's side.

That momentum continued less than two minutes later when sophomore long pole Dan Halayko caused a turnover, which led to the next Maryland goal. Halayko stripped Tim Paul and senior defenseman Joe Cinosky pushed the ball up the field. The ball eventually found its way to Young and he fed it to fellow freshman Grant Catalino, who beat Navy goalie Tommy Phelan one-on-one to trim the lead to 5-4.

But that's where the Maryland comeback would end. The Terps did have one final shot at tying the game as the clock ticked down. Redshirt junior goalie Jason Carter caused a turnover with 23 seconds left. Cinosky grabbed the groundball and fired a pass ahead to redshirt junior midfielder Jeff Reynolds, who fired a shot but it sailed high over the Midshipman goal.

Sophomore Brian Phipps made eight saves for the Terps in the first 30:00, while Carter had six stops in the final two quarters. Cinosky led the Terrapin defense with five groundballs and three caused turnovers. Sophomore short-stick middie Bryn Holmes had three groundballs and two caused turnovers.

GAME 11

NO. 15 JOHNS HOPKINS 10
NO. 7 MARYLAND 4

APRIL 12, 2008
HOMEWOOD FIELD

BALTIMORE - The University of Maryland men's lacrosse team dropped a 10-4 decision at No. 15 Johns Hopkins in front of 8,626 fans at Homewood Field.

The first quarter was, as expected, a hard-hitting, physical start to the game. Hopkins jumped out to a 1-0 lead thanks to a running left-hander down the left alley by Paul Rabil. The Blue Jays upped their lead to 2-0 at the 2:47 mark when Steven Boyle dumped a pass to Michael Doneger in front of the crease where he one-timed a shot past Maryland goalie Jason Carter.

After another Doneger goal grew the lead to 3-0, the Terps finally got on the board with 7:15 left in the second quarter. Senior All-American Joe Cinosky stabbed a Hopkins pass out of the air and hit a running Brian Farrell in stride to start the fast break. Farrell fought a Blue Jay defender the whole way down the field and was able to get off a one-handed bounce shot from the right alley that beat Hopkins goalie Michael Gvozden.

The Terps continued to try to claw back into the game and got a lucky bounce that led to their next score. Gvozden stopped a Tony Mendes shot, but was unable to control the ball. Senior Max Ritz picked up the groundball and laced a quck pass to Drew Evans on the left side of the crease, where Evans ripped a quick shot to the short side to trim the lead to 3-2.

After Hopkins went on a 5-0 run to start the third quarter to open up an 8-2 advantage, Maryland finally got back on the scoreboard thanks to a pair of Blue Jay penalties. The Terps used every second of the extra-man opportunity, but finally Dan Groot found Grant Catalino 12-yards out at the top of the goal, where the Webster, N.Y., native ripped a low shot for the Terrapins' third goal of the game.

The third quarter was closed out with another Blue Jay goal to send the game into the fourth quarter with a 9-3 Hopkins lead.

Despite being down six goals, the Terps kept fighting. Catalino picked up his second point of the game when he fed sophomore Adam Sear from behind the cage to about 13 yards up top. Sear then unleashed a low-to-high shot into the upper right hand corner of the Hopkins net.

Maryland tried everything to get back into the game, including having Carter jump out from in front of the net to double-team the ball. Rabil made the Terps pay however, splitting the double and cashing in with an empty-net score for his third goal of the game at the 4:44 mark and that ended the scoring for the 10-4 final.

Carter finished the game with 11 saves and three groundballs, while Cinosky and Ritz each had three groundballs.

GAME 12

NO. 7 MARYLAND 9
PENN 4

APRIL 19, 2008
LUDWIG FIELD

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The only player who could score on Brian Phipps at Ludwig Field was Brian Phipps. The sophomore goalie made a career-best 17 saves to lead the No. 7 Maryland men's lacrosse team to a 9-4 win over Penn.

Phipps, the 2007 ACC Freshman of the Year, was spectacular in the cage, stopping everything shot his way from a simple stab to stop a simple shot headed for the top corner to a sensational diving save in the second quarter when he left the crease to go after a loose ball. The only goal Phipps allowed on the day came at the 9:05 mark of the first quarter. Phipps made his fourth save of the game, stopping a shot by Corey Winkoff, but the ball was knocked out of his stick and bounced into the Terrapin goal.

But that was the last time the Quakers would score for the next 51:12. The Terrapin defense was solid all afternoon and while Penn did out-shoot Maryland 43-32 the Terps' "D" held the Quakers to a shooting percentage of less than 10 percent. The defensive effort was spearheaded by senior All-America candidate Joe Cinosky, who set a career-best with six groundballs to go along with two caused turnovers.

Also contributing to the defensive performance was the play of face-off men Bryn Holmes and Will Dalton. The two combined to win 9-of-15 draws and pick up eight groundballs.

Not to be outdone, the Terrapin offense played its best game since the end of March. Freshman attackman Travis Reed made his return to the Maryland line-up noticeable right from the start by picking up the first of his career-best four assists on senior Max Ritz's goal at the 12:15 mark of the first quarter on a runner from the right alley.

Maryland built a 2-0 lead on another runner, this one coming from the left alley by junior Jeremy Sieverts off an assist from freshman Grant Catalino.

After Winkoff was credited with the lone goal allowed by Phipps, the game remained 2-1 in favor of Maryland until just under the seven-minute mark of the second quarter. Sophomore long pole Brian Farrell keyed the Terrapin transition game, picking-off a J.J. Lian pass and taking it the other way into the Maryland offensive zone. The ball found its way to Reed just behind the right side of the Quaker goal. He spotted a hustling Chris Rhine and zipped a pass into the crease that Rhine deftly one-timed past Penn goalie Chris Casey.

Reed added his third assist less than two minutes later with another dump pass inside the crease. This time it was Catalino on the receiving end and the big 6-foot-5, 240-pound attackman was able to get a good handle on the pass and finish the play despite a Quaker defender draped on his back.

Dan Groot kept the momentum going for the Terps at the start of the third quarter with an unassisted goal at the 11:58 mark. The Junior all-American dodged inside of a Penn defender and slipped a left-handed shot low past Casey to give the Terps a 5-1 lead.

That four-goal margin remained until the Terps went on a four-goal scoring spree, stretching from the final 3:55 of the third quarter until the 14:49 mark of the fourth.

Junior attackman Scott Tompkins started the run for the Terps and was the beneficiary of a good groundball and feed from Ritz. A scramble to the side of the Quaker goal ended when Ritz picked up a tough groundball in a crown and was able to find Tompkins all alone in front of the Penn goal. Tompkins was then able to fake-out Casey and slip a shot between Casey's legs for the score.

Maryland's next goal came on its lone extra-man opportunity of the game. Freshman attackman Brett Weiss sent a quick skip pass over to Catalino on the right wing and Catalino dipped down and laced a low shot for the score at the 1:15 mark.

Sophomore midfielder Adam Sear got into the scoring column for the Terps as the second ticked down in the third quarter. Sear gave Reed his fourth assist of the day by firing another low shot from the left alley past Casey for an 8-1 Terrapin advantage.

The 4-0 run came to a close off of the opening face-off of the fourth quarter. Holmes picked the ball clean from Penn's Justin Lynch and got the ball to redshirt-junior Jeff Reynolds, who was running free down the right alley. Reynolds then ripped a shot into the Quaker goal for an eight-goal Maryland lead.

The Quakers finally broke their scoreless skid at the 2:53 mark of the fourth quarter, just 28 seconds after Phipps came out of the game, when Garve Heiderman scored off an assist by Winkoff. Penn rounded out the scoring with a pair of man-up goals by Al Kohart and Alex Webber.

GAME 13
ACC SEMIFINALS

NO. 3 VIRGINIA.....11
NO. 5 MARYLAND 8
APRIL 25, 2008
KLÖCKNER STADIUM

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. -The University of Maryland men's lacrosse team dropped an 11-8 decision to No. 3 Virginia at Klöckner Stadium in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament.

The Cavaliers jumped out on top early with back-to-back goals by Garrett Billings. The Terps got on the board with a terrific wrap-around goal by freshman Ryan Young to cut the lead to one. Ben Rubeor pushed it back to two goals with an unassisted goal with 5:36 left in the first quarter. The lead was almost three, but redshirt junior goalie Jason Carter made a fantastic 1-on-1 save during a Cavalier man-up opportunity. Freshman Grant Catalino scored to trim the lead back to one at the 1:03 mark with a huge shot from 18-yards out from the top of the Maryland attack zone.

Maryland knotted the score at 3-3 just 34 seconds into the second quarter on senior Max Ritz's goal off an assist by freshman Travis Reed. But the Wahoos got another two goals from Billings and one from Jack Riley to build their advantage to three goals at 6-3 and that's how the second quarter would end.

Sophomore goalie Brian Phipps entered the game for the Terps at the start of the third and made his presence felt immediately with a pair of great stops. But Virginia's Shamel Bratton was able to get one past Phipps to give the Cavaliers a four-goal lead.

Maryland's man-up unit continued to click with Catalino finding Ritz open on the left goal-line extended and Ritz slipped a low shot past Virginia goalie Bud Petit to get the Terps back in the scoring column. Maryland's comeback effort continued with a highlight-reel behind-the-back goal by Catalino at the 3:05 mark. Adam Sear assisted on the play and made it all possible by picking up a tough groundball before hitting a cutting Catalino coming across the crease.

The Cavaliers got goals from Rubeor and Bratton, both on assists by Peter Lamade, to extend the lead back to four. But Maryland redshirt junior Jeff Reynolds won the face-off following Bratton's goal to give the Terps one more possession as third quarter was coming to a close. With just 3.3 seconds left on the clock Reed zipped a pass from behind the right side of the Cavalier goal to sophomore Bryn Holmes, who was 15 yards out in front of the net in the left alley. Holmes was able to take a hop and a step and rip a shot past Petit and get the Maryland deficit back to three goals heading into the final period.

But Rubeor scored his third goal of the game less than a minute into the fourth to give the Wahoos a 10-6 lead. Rubeor tacked on his fourth with an empty-net goal when Phipps left the crease to double-team the ball and try to force a turnover.

The Terps wouldn't quit despit being down by five goals. Junior Dan Groot scored off an assist by freshman Tony Mendes. Maryland won the ensuing face-off and Reynolds scored on a high-bouncer to trim the lead back to three at 11-8 with 1:14 remaining.

GAME 14

NO. 8 MARYLAND 16
YALE 10
MAY 3, 2008
CHEVY CHASE BANK FIELD AT BYRD STADIUM

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -It was "Senior Day" for the eighth-ranked University of Maryland men's lacrosse team, but it was freshman Grant Catalino that stole the show in the Terps' 16-10 win over the Yale Bulldogs at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium.

The 6-foot-5, 240-pound attackman from Webster, N.Y., led all scorers with a career-high seven points on four goals and a career-best three assists. Catalino's seven points are the most by a Terp since March 20, 2007 when Michael Phipps had seven in a win over Mount St. Mary's.

Maryland (9-5) never trailed in the game and showed a good inside-outside scoring balance. That was evident with the Terps' first two goals, both of which featured Catalino. The Webster, N.Y., native showed off his feeding ability with a great look inside to a cutting Scott Tompkins, who was making his first career start. Tompkins smoothly caught the ball and ripped a shot into the Bulldog goal for a 1-0 lead. Catalino's shooting prowess was on display less than two minutes later when he picked up a groundball in the left alley and ripped a quick low-to-high shot past Eli goalie George Carafides.

Yale scored two of the game's next three goals to pull to within one at 3-2, but senior midfielder Drew Evans' goal off an assist from junior All-American Dan Groot at the 6:18 mark kicked off a seven-goal Maryland scoring run that put the game out of reach. Groot fed Evans with a quick look inside the crease for the easy score. The play began back in the Eli zone with a turnover caused by sophomore long pole Dan Halayko.

Maryland's outside-shooting midfielders picked up the next two goals with freshman Tony Mendes and redshirt junior Jeff Reynolds both ripping shots into the cage from outside of 12 yards.

Evans was on the giving end of the Terps' next goal. He dropped a simple pass into the crease to freshman Travis Reed, who one-timed the ball past Carafides to give Maryland a 7-2 lead with 12:39 left in the second quarter. Reynolds followed that up with another outside laser from the left alley less than a minute later to boost the lead to six goals.

Reed scored his second goal of the game with a low-to-high shot from a tight angle just inside the right goal line extended. Picking up an assist on Reed's goal was freshman attackman Brett Weiss.

The scoring-run was finished with some trickery by sophomore Brian Farrell. After Holmes won the face-off following Reed's goal, Farrell lost his defender by faking like he was going to sub out for an offensive midfielder. Redshirt freshman Dan Burns, who picked up the groundball off the face-off recognized the opening and quickly fired a pass to Farrell. A Yale defender slid to cover the long pole, but Farrell was able to find a wide-open Holmes on the crease, who bounced a shot in for the score.

Kyle Washabaugh broke up the scoring run with his only goal of the game at the 2:38 mark, but Maryland answered right back with an unassisted goal by junior David O'Quinn. Greg DuBoff closed out the first half with his second goal of the game with 1:05 left on the clock.

After seven goals combined in the first and eight in the second, the teams settled in in the third quarter. The Bulldogs outscored the Terps 3-1 in the third. Senior face-off man Will Dalton sandwiched the only Maryland goal between two Davis Lindsey goals. Catalino got his third assist on Dalton's score with a quick skip pass from the left alley cross-field to the right alley, where Dalton ripped a shot for his first of two goals on the day.

The Eli's scored twice more following Lindsey's second goal to get to within four goals at 12-8, but Dalton scored on his patented bull-dodge through the right alley after picking the face-off clean at the 10:47 mark. Catalino then scored back-to-back goals off assists by Jeremy Sievers and Groot, respectively, to boost the lead back to seven at 15-8 with 5:57 left in the fourth.

Brendan Gibson scored two of his three goals on the day less than two minutes apart to trim the Bulldog deficit to five, but Catalino put the icing on the Terps' cake with his fourth goal of the day off an assist by Burns at the 2:06 mark to give Maryland the 16-10 victory.

Maryland's face-off combination of Dalton (6-of-14), Holmes (9-of-13) and Reynolds (2-of-3) won 17-of-30 battles at the X, including a decisive 6-of-9 in the second quarter that led to six Terrapin goals. Dalton led the Terps with five groundballs, while Holmes and Reynolds had three apiece.

Senior All-American Joe Cinosky had a tremendous final regular season home game with three groundballs and a pair of caused turnovers. Fifth-year seniors Ryne Adolph and Jacob Baxter each had a groundball and a caused turnover in the game as well. Senior long pole Matt Rankin set his career high with three groundballs.

GAME 15
NCAA FIRST ROUND
NO. 7 MARYLAND 10
DENVER 7
MAY 10, 2008
CHEVY CHASE BANK FIELD AT BYRD STADIUM

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -The seventh-seeded University of Maryland men's lacrosse team used a 7-0 run to put away the Denver Pioneers by a 10-7 margin in the first round of the NCAA men's lacrosse tournament at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium.

Freshman attackman Grant Catalino had four points on two goals and a pair of assists to lead five Terps with at least two points. The defense, which held the Pioneers without a goal for 30:06, was led by senior All-American Joe Cinosky, who had four groundballs and four caused turnovers.

The Pioneers jumped out to an early 2-0 lead on goals by John Dickenson and Joey Murray, but Maryland got on the board at the 8:31 mark of the first quarter on Catalino's first score of the day on an assist by sophomore Bryn Holmes. Denver's Brett Koll built the lead back to two goals with his only goal of the game with 6:12 to play in the quarter.

Senior midfielder Max Ritz scored the first of his two goals to trim the deficit to one at the 3:54 mark. Freshman Ryan Young picked up the assist with a great pass from behind the net to Ritz, who was cutting across the field to the right wing.

The second quarter started just like the first with the Pioneers scoring the first two goals of the quarter to take a 5-2 lead, but that's as close as they would get the rest of the afternoon as the Terps would go on a 7-0 run to take control of the game.

Helping the Terps' cause was Denver's penchant for fouling. Down by three with seven minutes remaining in the half the Maryland extra-man unit converted on 3-of-5 opportunities to tie the game at 5-5 going into halftime.

Junior midfielder Jeremy Sieverts scored the first man-up goal for Maryland with a quick bounce shot from the left alley that was set-up by a good look from Catalino. Sieverts figured in on the next EMO goal, this time picking up the assist with a pass to Ritz, who scored with a terrific shot to the short-side on Denver goalie Austin Konkel, who kept the Pioneers in the game in the first half with 11 saves. He finished with 13 for the game.

The man-up group kept on clicking and tied the game at 5-5 with 48 seconds remaining in the half. Catalino earned his third point of the half with a quick look inside to freshman Brett Weiss, who quickly turned and got off a good low shot before the Denver defense could converge.

The third quarter was played closer to the vest and saw only two goals scored, both by the Terps - sort of. Junior All-American Dan Groot scored the period's first goal at the 6:12 mark. Groot fired a shot on the run from the right wing that appeared to be headed wide, but it hit Denver defender Dillon Roy and deflected into an open Pioneer net. That goal gave the Terps their first lead of the game.

Maryland's second goal of the third came off of one of Denver's 29 turnovers on the day. After a failed clear by the Pioneers, Terrapin sophomore long-pole Brian Farrell picked up the ball and rushed into the Denver zone. As the defense collapsed he flicked a pass to Young, who was laced a shot past Konkel for a 7-5 Maryland lead.

The Terps' scoring run continued in the fourth quarter only this time it wasn't the man-up unit doing the damage it was the man-down group that put up a goal. After Jeff Reynolds was called for a delay of game penalty, Farrell picked off a pass by Denver's Cliff Smith and connected on an outlet pass to Cinosky for the clear attempt. Cinosky advanced the ball into the Maryland attack zone, but none of the Pioneer defenders stepped out to stop him, so Cinosky gave the ball a quick cradle and laced a shot from 10 yards out for his first career goal.

The run finished with Catalino's second score of the day and the play was started with another Pioneer turnover caused by Cinosky. Groot picked up the assist on the goal by dodging down the left alley, drawing a pair of Denver defenders. That left Catalino wide open along the right goal-line extended and he beat Konkel one-on-one to give Maryland a 9-5 lead with 10:31 left in the game.

Denver, which had outscored its opponents by 21 goals in the fourth quarter during the season, refused to give in and got goals from Charley Dickenson and Illija Gajic to bring the Pioneers to within a pair of goals at 9-7.

But with just over four minutes remaining the Pioneers started pressing on the defensive end, including double-teaming the ball with their goalie. That left an open net for the Terps and senior Drew Evans was able to split the double and score an empty-netter with 1:01 left to close the scoring and send Maryland into the quarterfinals with the 10-7 win.

Sophomore goalie Brian Phipps played the final 30:00 for the Terps in goal and made six saves while allowing just two goals. Redshirt junior Jason Carter made three saves in the first half for Maryland. Overall 10 Terps combined to force 21 of Denver's 29 turnovers. Farrell caused a career-best four, while senior Ryne Adolph and Reynolds tied their career-highs with three apiece.

GAME 16
NCAA QUARTERFINALS
NO. 2 VIRGINIA..... 8 (OT)
NO. 7 MARYLAND 7
MAY 17, 2008
NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM

ANNAPOLIS, Md. -Ben Rubeor scored his third goal of the game with 34 seconds left in overtime to send the No. 2 Virginia Cavaliers to an 8-7 win over No. 7 Maryland in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

The first quarter was one of runs with both teams putting together 3-0 scoring spurts. The Terps started things off with a goal from freshman Grant Catalino off an assist from senior Max Ritz. A slick pick-and-roll ended with Catalino one-on-one with Virginia goalie Bud Petit, but Catalino ball-faked three times before sticking it in for the 1-0 lead.

Maryland took a 2-0 lead just 10 seconds later off the ensuing face-off. Redshirt junior Jeff Reynolds scooped up the ball of the wing and raced down the center of the field and hit a runner at the 9:04 mark.

An unlikely source gave the Terps their 3-0 lead with 7:16 left in the opening quarter. After sophomore Byrn Holmes caused a Wahoo turnover near midfield on a Virginia clear attempt, freshman longstick Brett Schmidt picked up the loose ball and fired a shot from 30 yards into the Cavalier net, which was open with Petit out of the goal on the clear.

That lead wouldn't hold though and the teams headed to the second quarter tied at 3-3 after Virginia scored three times in the last 5:41 of the first. Steve Giannone scored first for Virginia followed by scores by Garrett Billings and Danny Glading.

Catalino put the Terps out ahead early in the second with a low-to-low shot from the left wing off an assist by junior Jeremy Sieverts. Sieverts then got into the scoring act himself with an unassisted goal at the 10:51 mark. Sieverts took the ball near midfield and dodged down the left alley and ripped a shot into the upper right corner for a 5-3 Maryland lead.

An unassisted goal by Rubeor at 1:29 pulled the Cavaliers to within one, but Maryland's defense chalked up another goal to push the lead back to a pair heading into halftime. Sophomore Bryn Holmes, who had four caused turnovers and three groundballs in the opening 30 minutes, led the charge into the Wahoo zone and flipped a pass to sophomore longstick Brian Farrell in the left alley. Farrell faked a pass to get free and laced a low-to-low shot from 12 yards out for the 6-4 Terrapin advantage.

Farrell gave Maryland a three-goal cushion with his second goal of the game to start the scoring in the second half. He caused a turnover in the Terps' defensive zone, hustled back on the fast break and got the ball back from Sieverts in the right alley and hit a bounce shot past Petit.

But the Cavaliers fought back and trimmed the Maryland lead back to a goal heading into the fourth. Glading scored an unassisted goal at 4:05 on a wrap-around from behind the left side of the Maryland goal. Rhamel Bratton scored another unassisted goal for Virginia with a quick shot into the top right corner of the Terp goal.

Maryland appeared to draw first blood at the 13:55 mark of the fourth to take a two-goal lead on a Travis Reed goal, but the goal was waived off by the officials due to a Virginia loose-ball push prior to the shot.

Virginia took advantage of the call and knotted the game at 7-7 with 8:43 remaining on an unassisted goal by Rubeor from the right wing. Both teams had opportunities during the quarter, but neither could get another goal sending the game into overtime.

Defensively Maryland was led by Holmes, who finished the game with six groundballs and five caused turnovers. Senior Jacob Baxter had four groundballs and a caused turnover, while Farrell had two groundballs and a pair of caused turnovers.

ALL-AMERICA TRADITION

Beginning with Ivan Marty, Cecil Branner, Charles Brewer, Joseph Burger and Ralph Heidelbach in 1923 to Joe Cinosky, Brian Farrell and Jeff Reynolds, Maryland has a long and distinguished list of Terrapin men's lacrosse players that have earned All-America honors during their tenure in College Park.

Terp men's lacrosse players have earned first team All-America honors 110 times since the awards began in 1922. In total, Maryland has had 413 student-athletes named All-Americans.

Six Terrapins earned All-America honors in each of their four seasons, including Frank Urso, who is still one of just four players in the history of college lacrosse to be a four-time first team All-American.

Charles Wicker (1953-56) – HM/3rd/1st/1st
Frank Urso (1973-76) – 1st/1st/1st/1st
Bob Ott (1976-79) – 3rd/3rd/HM/2nd
Bob Boniello (1977-80) – HM/2nd/1st/3rd
Peter Worstell (1977-81) – 2nd/2nd/2nd/1st
Joe Walters (2003-06) – HM/1st/2nd/1st

In addition to those six, 39 Terps have been named All-Americans three times during their careers. Among those are Charles Ellinger (1935-37) and Gordon Pugh (1931-33), who each were first team All-Americans in all three of their seasons as Terps. The only other three-time first team All-American for Maryland was defender Mike Farrell (1974-77).

Maryland turns out All-Americans regardless of where student-athletes play on the field. Since 1923, 36 defenders have earned first team All-America honors. Attack comes in a close second with 34, while 28 midfielders have been selected first-teamers. The Terps have also had 12 goalies selected to the first team.

The midfield has turned out the most All-Americans for Maryland with 132 total selections. The most selections for a position in a single season are six midfielders on the 1973 National Championship team (Doug Schreiber, Frank Urso, Doug Radebaugh, Gary Besosa, Larry Hubbard and Brooks Sleeper).

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

DEEP ROOTS, BROAD IMPACT

Charles Benedict Calvert founded the Maryland Agricultural College in 1856 with the goal of creating a school that would offer outstanding practical knowledge to him and his neighbors and be "an institution superior to any other."

One hundred and fifty years later, the University of Maryland has blossomed from its roots as the state's first agricultural college and one of America's original land grant institutions into a model of the modern research university. It is the state's greatest asset for its economic development and its future, and has made its mark in the nation and the world.

Calvert would be astounded by the depth and breadth of research activities, innovative educational programs, and the single-minded pursuit of excellence that are part of the University of Maryland today. Maryland is ranked 18th among the nation's top public research universities by U.S. News & World Report, with 31 academic programs in the Top 10 and 86 in the Top 25. It is also ranked No. 37th in the world, according to the Institute of Higher Education at at Shanghai's Jiao Tong University.

Maryland is the state's premier center of research and graduate education and the public institution of choice for undergraduate students of exceptional ability and promise. The faculty includes four Nobel laureates, six Pulitzer Prize winners, a three-time Emmy Award winner, more than 40 members of national academies and scores of Fulbright scholars. The university focuses great attention on the highest academic standards, affordability for all qualified students, and a President's Promise program that guarantees opportunity for extraordinary extracurricular and professional experiences for each student.

It has earned a national reputation for its enriched educational experiences for undergraduates, including such widely imitated living/learning programs as College Park Scholars; Gemstone, a unique program that brings teams of students together from across disciplines to tackle specific technical problems; and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored jointly by the A. James Clark School of Engineering and the Robert H. Smith School of Business, and widely recognized as the most successful student entrepreneurship program in the nation.

These programs are guided by outstanding faculty whose accomplishments in research abound. Whether the issue is Mideast peace, cutting-edge research in nanoscience, homeland security or bioscience advances, Maryland faculty are selected for national leadership and are making news. Many recent major faculty initiatives receiving significant external support strengthen our homeland security endeavors—centers for research on agrosecurity and emergency management; intermodal freight transportation security; behavioral and social analyses of terrorism and responses to terrorism; astrophysics and advanced world climate and weather prediction; and a national Center for Advanced Study of Language.

In addition to its academic prowess, Maryland is also home to the Terrapins, whose athletic achievements are a perennial source of pride for nearly 250,000 alumni and residents of the state. In 2005-2006, the Terrapins brought home national championships in four sports — men's soccer, field hockey, competitive cheer and women's basketball — more than any university in the nation.

Whether aiming for the skies or pioneering journalism programs in China, the University of Maryland is surging ahead. Building on the work of outstanding faculty and students, and with the loyal support of alumni and friends, Maryland is moving aggressively and confidently to a decade that will shine brighter than any other in its history.

DR. C.D. MOTE

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
CALIFORNIA '59
10TH YEAR

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state of the art sports complex; a high tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

Prior to assuming the Presidency at Maryland, Dr. Mote served on the University of California, Berkeley faculty for 31 years. From 1991 to 1998, he was Vice Chancellor at Berkeley, held an endowed chair in Mechanical Systems and was President of the UC Berkeley Foundation. He led a comprehensive capital campaign for Berkeley that raised $1.4 B. He earlier served as chair of Berkeley's Department of Mechanical Engineering and led the department to its number one ranking in the National Research Council review of graduate program effectiveness.

Dr. Mote's research lies in dynamic systems and biomechanics. Internationally recognized for his research on the dynamics of gyroscopic systems and the biomechanics of snow skiing, he has produced more than 300 publications, holds patents in the U.S., Norway, Finland and Sweden, and has mentored 56 Ph.D. students. He received a B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from the University of California, Berkeley. President Mote has received numerous awards and honors, including the Humboldt Prize awarded by the Federal Republic of Germany. He is a recipient of the Berkeley Citation, an award from the University of California-Berkeley similar to the honorary doctorate, and was named Distinguished Engineering Alumnus. He has received two honorary doctorates. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Engineering and serves on its Council, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He was elected to Honorary Membership in the ASME International, its most distinguished recognition, and is a Fellow of the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. In Spring 2005, he was named recipient of the 2005 J. P. Den Hartog award by the ASME International Technical Committee on Vibration and Sound to honor his lifelong contribution to the teaching and/or practice of vibration engineering. In Fall 2005, he received the 2005 Founders Award from the National Academy of Engineering in recognition of his comprehensive body of work on the dynamics of moving flexible structures and for leadership in academia.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.

DEBORAH A. YOW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS • 15TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Deborah A. Yow is in the 15th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. In Yow's 14-plus years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 18 national championships and graduated student-athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights among the nation's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada. She serves as the current President of the national Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Football Foundation, as well as the Board of Directors of USA Football and the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Committee.

She has been honored by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics, was cited in The Chronicle of Higher Education in October 2007 as one of the "Ten Most Powerful People in College Athletics/The Builder" and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Dr. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television, including multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics" in New York.

Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal Named Deborah A. Yow One Of The 20 Most Influential People In College Athletics.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization with 27 sports and more than 700 student-athletes.
- Balanced all 14 of the department's annual budgets (none of the budgets were balanced in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget now approaches $60 million annually and the $51 million debt which her administration inherited has been reduced to $7.6 million.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student-athletes at Maryland. Academic outcomes and student-athlete welfare have received consistent and focused attention.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 7 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The 18,000-seat Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the remarkable $250 million upgrade of athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland captured a remarkable seven national championships during the past three seasons.
- In the recent academic year, the Terrapins achieved the highest student-athlete graduation rate in the history of Maryland athletics and had the highest graduation rate of any public institution in the Atlantic Coast Conference.
- Fundraising for Maryland athletics set a historic mark of $24.7 million in 2006-07.

Yow with several Terrapin student-athletes at the annual Welcome Back Picnic.

- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report and Sports Illustrated as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In 2005-06, Maryland Athletics won the inaugural PRISM Award as the best-managed Division I collegiate athletics program in the nation.
- Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Center for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team appeared in 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments and in 12 of the last 15 tournaments.
- Women's basketball won the 2006 NCAA National Championship under head coach Brenda Frese, completing an amazing turnaround that saw the program go from a 10-18 record to a National Championship in four seasons.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004. In the 2006 season, Maryland returned to the bowl scene, where the Terps defeated Purdue, 24-7, in the Champs Sports Bowl, and in 2007 was selected to play Oregon State in the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco. Graduation rates in football are exemplary and the program was recently recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its academic excellence under Coach Ralph Friedgen.
- Additionally, Maryland is one of only three universities in the nation to win National Championships in men's basketball, women's basketball and football. Stanford and UCLA are the other NCAA Division I institutions to achieve that mark.
- Set an ACC single-game record for women's basketball attendance by drawing 17,950 to a regular-season game at Comcast Center and led the ACC in season attendance.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the sixth-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in three of his first four seasons.
- Field hockey earned National Championships in 2005, 2006 and in 2008, and has become a perennial participant in the Final Four in that sport.
- In women's lacrosse, hired Cathy Reese, who was named the 2007 ACC Coach of the Year in her first season as coach of the Terps.
- Men's soccer has appeared in five College Cups in the past seven years and won the 2005 and 2008 NCAA National Championship.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Football Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- In 2006-07, 16 Maryland teams competed in postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 14 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied ... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently ... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools ... to work hard and work smart ... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). In 2002, she also brought to the University of Maryland Brenda Frese, who at that time was the National Coach of the Year in women's basketball. Four years later, Frese led the Terrapins to the NCAA National Championship at the Women's Final Four in Boston.

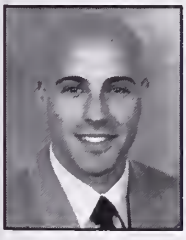
Dr. Yow is known as "a coach's A.D.," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator and leader.

A successful former basketball coach, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as A.D. at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States. She holds a bachelor's degree from Elon University, a masters degree from Liberty University and a doctorate (honorus causa) from the U.S. Sports Academy and an honorary doctorate for career achievement from Elon University.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University -- Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success ... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

MEN'S LACROSSE SUPERVISOR



MICHAEL LIPITZ

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Michael Lipitz is in his ninth year with the University of Maryland and his second as senior associate athletics director for varsity sports. He worked for Maryland Athletics in a senior management role from 1999 through 2006, before serving as Chief Operating Officer of the Orange Bowl Committee for the 2007 FedEx Orange Bowl in Miami, Florida.

Lipitz supervises the Terps' women's basketball, men's lacrosse, field hockey, volleyball, gymnastics, and men's and women's swimming and diving programs. He works closely with the Chief of Staff on internal operations and special initiatives. He also serves as the department's liaison to the University's Legal Office and Office of Student Conduct.

Lipitz graduated from the University of Maryland with a degree in government and politics and dual concentrations in English and political leadership. He was a four-year varsity starter and two-year co-captain on the men's tennis team. Before returning to work at his alma mater, Lipitz earned his law degree from Villanova University.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by associate athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Laura Meckley works with the Maryland men's lacrosse team.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and a graduate assistant. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house recently. It features offices for two counselors, a program coordinator and three learning specialists; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS COMMITMENT STATEMENTS

Commitment to Academic Excellence

To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence

To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development

To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development

To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service

To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

TERRAPIN CLUB

Athletic excellence is a tradition at the University of Maryland—a tradition alumni and friends alike want to see continue and flourish. That's why we are inviting you to be a member of the Maryland Athletics Family by joining the Terrapin Club. Whether you are an alumnus of the University of Maryland or a friend interested in supporting the state's flagship campus, belonging to the Terrapin Club enables you to:

- Provide annual scholarship support for our student-athletes who will contribute to the community
- Share our vision to fully scholarship all sports to best represent the University
- Take pride in the achievement of athletic excellence
- Participate in the camaraderie and fellowship unique to Terrapin Club members
- Receive a tax deduction for your financial contribution for scholarships
- Enjoy access to great benefits including priority seating in Byrd Stadium for football and Comcast Center for basketball, priority parking and tickets to other events

At Maryland, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics operates without significant University funding and receives no state appropriations or tax dollars for operational expenses. Sanctioned by the University of Maryland College Park Foundation, 100% of the funds raised through the Terrapin Club are managed by the Foundation for the exclusive use of Maryland Athletics. Your contribution directly supports an annual student-athlete scholarship cost of over $8 million and Terrapin Club and department expenses. The Terrapin Club provides scholarship support to many of the 700 student-athletes who compete on 27 varsity team representing the University of Maryland.

MAJOR GIFTS FUNDRAISING

In the Fall of 2006, the University of Maryland publicly launched Great Expectations: The Campaign for Maryland, a $1 billion fundraising effort that will transform the University from excellence to greatness. Intercollegiate Athletics, one of the most visible units of the University will seek to raise a total of $133 million to: (1) enhance and improve competition, practice and training facilities for a number of our teams; (2) fund annual scholarships for student athletes; and (3) endow student-athlete scholarships, coaching positions and teams.

A centerpiece of the ambitious Great Expectations fund raising campaign is an enhancement to Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium, for which construction began in 2007. Phase one of this project, which is scheduled for completion for the 2009 season, includes the expansion of Tyser Tower along the South concourse to add 64 luxury suites of varying sizes and 440 mezzanine seats (featuring heated and covered seating and food service); a University suite with seating for 200 guests; new work areas for television, radio and print media; new work areas for coaches and game day operating staff; a new game-day merchandise outlet; and enhanced seating for disabled customers.

Phase two includes the installation of railings in the North and South lower bowl to enhance fan safety and comfort, and chair back seating in the 200 level on the North side. The playing field will be lowered to improve sight lines for seats on the lower rows, converting a number of those seats from obstructed view to some of the best views in the stadium. Additionally, all of the blue roofs in the stadium will be painted.

Future expansion for football facilities includes renovation of Gossett Football Team House to enlarge the locker room and training areas, as well as the transformation of the West End Zone with the addition of nearly 8,000 seats which will bring stadium capacity to approximately 60,000 seats.

This expansion plan is an ambitious one. Critical to its success is the leasing of all available Suites within the expanded Tyser Tower. You can support the proud tradition and future growth of Maryland Football by contributing to the Great Expectations campaign or leasing a luxury Suite at the stadium.

To obtain information on leasing a suite at Byrd Stadium, or any other component of the Great Expectations Campaign for Athletics, please contact the Athletics Major Gifts Office at (301) 314-7020, or toll free at (800) 653-7667, by email at terrapinclub@umd.edu, or visit www.GreatExpectationsAthletics.com

THE M CLUB
AN 85-YEAR TRADITION OF "ATHLETES HELPING ATHLETES"SM

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest and most respected letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,500 former Maryland varsity athletes and a leader in the National Letter Winners Association.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for all the varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships and to cultivate networking, social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund, support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts and provide for career development initiatives. Members receive information about the current teams and news about former teammates through a monthly electronic newsletter and a quarterly printed newsletter.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible, though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization that is nationally recognized.

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call the M Club office at (301) 314-7020, or visit our website at www.themclub.org.

Remember the M Club, "Athletes Helping Athletes."

MEDIA CREDENTIALS POLICY

The University of Maryland issues media credentials under the priorities listed below. These priorities are designed to achieve efficient use of limited space available for working members of the media at University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic events.

The University of Maryland Athletics Media Relations Office is responsible for administering this policy. Credential requests must be made no later than three days prior to an event. For more information, contact Associate Media Relations Director Patrick Fischer at 301-314-7062 or at pfischer@umd.edu.

PRIORITIES:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live television or radio broadcast of a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition.
2. Daily newspapers, wire services, and regional and national publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular and substantial sports show reporting on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics receive consideration for credentials.
4. Officially recognized University of Maryland daily student publications and daily student electronic media outlets that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics.
5. Official websites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools, non-conference opponents, and the Atlantic Coast Conference office.
6. Non-daily newspapers or publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics.
7. Online entities that meet the requirements set out in guideline 7, below.

GUIDELINES:

1. Season media credentials are issued to those organizations that report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics on a regular and substantial basis, as outlined above. Issuance of season media credentials does not guarantee working space in media work areas.
2. With the exception of Terrapin beat reporters reporting on the team on a daily basis and producing daily reports, all passes are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis.
3. Except as otherwise provided for in this policy, all passes and credentials are transferable within the same media outlet for use by those serving an editorial function. Passes used by any member of a credentialed outlet without specific editorial assignment or by non-working members of the organization are subject to revocation upon University request.
4. Due to limited space and to ensure compliance with NCAA guidelines, credentials will not be issued to "free-lance" writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.
5. The University of Maryland and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets." The University of Maryland will not issue credentials to organizations whose primary function is to deliver news related to the recruitment of student-athletes.
6. No credentials will be issued to individuals under the age of 18. Admission to media facilities are for working media only.
7. Credentials may be issued: a) to online entities that are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; or, b) to online entities that host a website that regularly and substantially reports on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics, and employs for that University of Maryland-dedicated website at least one full-time permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site, and that registers a minimum of 20,000 legitimate unique users per month in each of the past 12 months.

   An online entity that meets the requirements of either 7.a) or 7.b) and which sponsors message boards or chat rooms may be credentialed only if the entity enforces its policies regarding abusive or discriminatory material.
8. University personnel may deny or revoke credentials without notice and an individual shall surrender his/her credential upon request for: noncompliance with the priorities or guidelines set out in this policy; noncompliance with health, safety, or security directives issued regarding University athletic events; violations of University, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, NCAA, or ACC policies; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics. Any organization that wishes to contest a denial or revocation shall: a) request the Media Relations Office provide a written rationale for the denial or revocation; b) submit a written response to that rationale to the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations. After reviewing the response, the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations, in consultation with appropriate University officials, shall issue a decision to uphold or reverse the denial or revocation. The Associate Athletic Director's decision shall be final.
9. The University of Maryland Athletics Media Relations Office reserves the right to change this policy at any time. The latest version will be available online at www.umterps.com.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors on official letterhead no later than three days prior to an event. They should be sent to the Athletic Media Relations Office, University of Maryland, 2725 Comcast Center, College Park, MD 20741-0295. They may also be faxed to 301-314-9094.

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment. Photographers must obtain an armband from the press box to gain admittance to the field.

Photographers are expected to comply with all University regulations and policies. Any photographer or any media a member not complying with instructions of University staff may be required to surrender their credentials.

PRESS BOX

The press box is located on the south side of Ludwig Field. Space is limited and seats will be assigned by the Maryland media relations department. A press credential does not guarantee a seat in the Ludwig Field press box.

POSTGAME STATISTICS

A statistics packet including play-by-play and final box scores are compiled for each game and made available to the media in the Ludwig Field Press Box.

IN-SEASON INTERVIEW POLICIES

Maryland players and head coach Dave Cottle will be available for interviews approximately one hour before practice with accredited members of the media throughout the season. All interview requests must be made through the media relations office, contacting Patrick Fischer. Advance notie of at least 24 hours is required.

Players' individual phone numbers will not be given to the media. Players will not be available for live call-in radio shows.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Media wishing to attend practice should contact the Media Relations Office in advance. No interviews will be permitted after the start of practice. Team meetings before, during and after practice are private.

Practices generally begin at 2:30 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Tuesday-Thursday practices usually begin at 3 p.m.

E-MAIL SERVICES

Men's lacrosse releases may be obtained electronically by contacting Patrick Fischer at pfischer@umd.edu.
